

April 25 Date Of Hearing On Garbage Ban

Restraining Order May Be Vacated Or Made Permanent

A hearing on the temporary injunction restraining enforcement of Circleville's controversial garbage ordinance has been set for April 25 at 2 p. m. by Pickaway Common Pleas Judge William D. Radcliff.

The date was set after City Solicitor Kenneth Robbins and attorney Harry Margulis, counsel for the City and would-be exclusive garbage hauler, George Biding, asked the court for a hearing on a motion to vacate the injunction.

The temporary restraining order was granted to a group of nine independent garbage haulers on April 1, the day the impending ordinance was to become law.

Under provisions of the ordinance, Biding of Pike County, would have an exclusive franchise in Circleville for the collection and dumping of garbage. In effect, the law would force the city's independent haulers, whose number has been estimated to be between nine and 40, out of business.

IN THEIR request for a permanent injunction, the independents charged that City Council in allowing Biding the exclusive right to make contracts with individual householders for garbage collection, had delegated power which only can be legally exercised by council itself.

They also alleged that the original bid made by Biding for the exclusive franchise does not conform in all respects to the contract he finally entered into with the city.

Movie Helps Police Solve Bank Holdup

CLEVELAND (AP)—The startling solution to a bank holdup, in which a movie camera made its debut as an arm of the police, has been making headlines here, but in the background are two detectives who noticed a red haired girl in a restaurant.

The detectives, William Steele and Joseph David, admired the "walk" of a girl in a restaurant three hours before the St. Clair Savings & Loan Co. was robbed of $2,376 Friday noon.

At 4:30 p. m. Friday the two were among a group who saw the two-minute film from a hidden movie camera at the bank. A bank clerk had pushed a button that started the camera and signaled central police station. In the picture they saw a gunman with the lower part of his face masked, and they saw a girl who walked to a cash drawer.

The picture was blurred, apparently by vibration near the camera, but the girl's walk looked familiar. The detectives went back to the restaurant where they had seen the red haired girl.

That was how the investigation started. It resulted in the surrender of 18-year-old Rose O'Donnell and Steven Ray Thomas, 24, and the capture of Wanda Di Cenzi, also 18, all within 36 hours after the holdup. All but $600 was recovered.

Miss O'Donnell admitted driving the getaway car, police said.

Tavern Operator Shot In Argument

COLUMBUS (AP)—Police held 66-year-old Elmer Tilton here today after they said he admitted fatally shooting John T. Paul, 66, a tavern operator, because "Paul ordered me off the sidewalk and called me a bad name."

Police said Tilton told them he intended to shoot another man with whom he had argued earlier. He said he ran into Paul while looking for the other man and that Paul told him, "Get off the sidewalk, you bum."

Patrolman Herman Stoffe said he found Tilton standing over Paul with a .32 caliber revolver in his hand outside the victim's bar.

House Nears Vote On More Money For Postoffices

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House was ready to approve today a bill to give the Postoffice Department another $41 million to restore normal mail service.

The Senate was poised to act, possibly Tuesday, thus clearing the way for Postmaster General Summerfield to call off service cutbacks begun Saturday.

Meanwhile, a second stage of Summerfield's cutback order became effective today. Mail deliveries to city business districts were limited to two a day, and most postoffices went on an 8½-hour schedule.

In advance of the House voting, Chairman Cannon (D-Mo.) of the House Appropriations Committee said, "I expect no difficulty."

Sen. Robertson (D-Va.), chairman of the Senate Appropriations funds, said he would urge the Senate to accept the $41 million figure. He feels that's enough to restore all postal services.

SUMMERFIELD has said he will make no move to restore service until the President signs a bill giving him more money.

He has said he must have $47 million to keep full mail service in operation during the remaining 2½ months of this fiscal year. He has promised to restore all the cuts he can if he gets $41 million.

He says the supplemental request was prompted by unforeseen costs. He attributed these to unexpectedly heavy mail volume, a need to open new routes to serve spreading residential areas, and a postal pay raise.

Congressional critics, including Cannon, have contended Summerfield should have lived within his regular budget of more than $2 billion. They have accused him of violating a law designed to prevent over-spending by federal agencies.

Comptroller General Joseph Campbell, head of the watchdog General Accounting Office, said the Postoffice Department violated the anti-deficiency law "in spirit" while staying technically in bounds.

Oregon Legal Chief Fighting To Keep Job

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP)—Dist. Atty. William M. Langley, convicted of failing to prosecute gamblers, will go into court today to try to hold on to his job.

Langley, one of the focal points in a yearlong vice investigation in Portland, was convicted by a state circuit court jury Saturday.

The penalty is removal from office and a possible $50 to $500 fine, but Langley's attorneys obtained an arrest of judgment. They are scheduled to argue for further delay and also to make a motion for a new trial.

They said they plan to appeal if their motions are denied.

Atty. Gen. Robert Y. Thornton of Oregon said, however, that Circuit Court Judge Frank J. Loneran could remove Langley from office at once, despite any appeal.

Thornton said it then would be up to Gov. Robert D. Holmes to appoint a successor.

Langley, insisting he is the victim of a frameup by Portland racketeer Big Jim Elkins, has fought to retain office. The 41-year-old Democrat faces six other indictments, returned by vice-investigating grand juries.

Summerfield and Cannon, said the Budget Bureau broke the law by allowing the Postoffice to spend its appropriation too rapidly.

He said the section of the law relating to the postal situation provides no penalty for violations.

ROBERT K. HARROD

Harrod Named Herald Editor

Robert K. Harrod, Lima, today was named editor of The Circleville Herald by Paul F. Rodenfels, publisher.

Harrod, 37, replaces Edward C. McCann, city editor.

The new editor has been an employee of The Lima News, Lima, for the last eight years. During that time he worked on the courthouse, city hall, police, school and business beats. He has been telegraph editor and has been acting sports editor in recent months.

Harrod was born in Springfield, O., and lived in Columbus and Dayton before moving to Lima in 1930. He is a graduate of Lima Central High School and Miami University, Oxford, O.

HE ENTERED the U. S. Naval Reserve on graduation from Miami and served 30 months in the Pacific during World War II.

The new editor is married and has two children, Robert 9, and Rebecca 8. He plans to move to Circleville within the next few weeks.

Fireboats Halt 2 Runaway Ships

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP)—Two unmanned runaway condemned ships seemed about to crash through a Willamette River bridge when two tiny fireboats chugged to the rescue Sunday.

They shoved their bows against the runaways and, while unable to stop them, slowed them down so that the Hawthorne Street Bridge sill was standing after the ships ground against the girders.

A raging storm with gusts up to 73 miles an hour tore the two ships away from a wrecking dock. Wind and current sent the ships, lashed side by side, bearing down on the bridge.

Anti-Cancer Defenses Seen

Ohio Pen Experiments Reviewed By Scientists

CHICAGO (AP)—Scientists report that human volunteers injected with live cancer cells show two kinds of defenses or immunity against cancer, one general and the other specific.

Sixty-five Ohio State Penitentiary inmates in Columbus were the volunteers who allowed cancers to be implanted under their skin. So did 15 hospital patients who already had cancers.

Drs. Hester S. Southam, Alice E. Moore and C. P. Rhoads of the Sloan-Kettering Institute, New York, announced the results to the American Assn. for Cancer Research.

None of the prisoners developed cancers. The implanted cancer cells soon were destroyed by the body's general defenses.

When the same kind of cancer cells were injected a second time, they were destroyed even faster. A specific defense reaction was coming into play.

THE REPORT said when men were given a different type of cancer cell that was implanted the first time, these cancers also disappeared more quickly than the first implants. By contrast the implanted cancers grew in most of the cancer patients, until removed one to six weeks later. In four patients, the cancers recurred and grew until removed.

The studies proved, said Dr. Southam, that cancer patients lack defense mechanisms which healthy people have. Blood studied showed the cancer patients had less of an unusual protein in the blood, properdin, which is known to play a role in the body's defense mechanisms.

Amounts of properdin varied with ability to reject the cancers.

Dr. Southam said there's not yet any direct evidence that properdin causes destruction of the cancers, but it's a possibility.

High Swedish Official Held As Soviet Spy

STOCKHOLM, Sweden (AP)—A high official of Sweden's Atomic Energy Commission has been arrested on charges of spying for Russia.

A police spokesman said 29-year-old Robert Folke Damstedt, the commission's assistant secretary, is being held for trial on charges of atomic espionage.

One unofficial report said a second person was held as a suspect in the case, which was said also to involve sale to Russia of blueprints of Sweden's newest submarines.

The disclosure added another round to the stormy exchange of spy charges and countercharges between Russia and Sweden since World War II. Last month Sweden delivered a formal protest to the Kremlin against Soviet espionage in this traditionally neutral country. That protest was coupled with rejection of a Soviet complaint that 14 spies for Sweden had been arrested and sentenced in Russia.

Unofficial reports described the Damstedt case as the most serious in the long chain since World War II. It was learned, however, that an assistant secretary, Damstedt performed mainly administrative functions and that he was a legal expert rather than a nuclear physicist.

News of the arrest came at a time when Sweden military leaders are publicly urging the government to begin manufacturing Swedish tactical atomic weapons or buy them from the West.

Uncle Sam Takes His Big Tax Bite

WASHINGTON (AP)—Uncle Sam takes his big tax bite today, a $60 billion levy. For the rest of the year he has to get along on nibbles.

This is the day income taxes are due. They total about $38½ billion. Corporations, too, have to settle their tax accounts with the government. That comes to about $21½ billion more.

But it takes more than $60 billion to run the government. The budget for the fiscal year which ends June 30 is $6.6 billion.

On top of that there is nearly $13 billion that has to be applied to such things as the Social Security trust fund, the highway trust fund, the railroad retirement account and refunds to taxpayers.

That leaves Uncle Sam needing about $23½ billion after individual and corporations ante up their tax money today.

But don't feel too sorry for him. He has ways of getting it.

EXCISE TAXES, for instance, this year will net the government about $10½ billion.

Every time you buy a package of cigarettes, Uncle Sam gets 8

DAYTON (AP)—The Dayton Daily News, hit by a strike of a Teamsters Union local made up of janitors and maids, planned to publish today, but the newspaper still faced a delivery problem.

You may not notice it, but the government collects 2 cents for every 1,000 matches sold — 5½ cents if they have "fancy wooden or colored stems."

Most excise taxes are hidden in the price you pay for things because they're collected from the manufacturer. He pays it and passes the cost along to you.

On jewelry, furs, toilet preparations and luggage (including handbags and wallets), Uncle Sam nicks you for 10 per cent of the retail cost.

He also gets his cut when you buy a phonograph or phonograph records, a radio, television set, refrigerator or car.

There's something in it for Uncle Sam when you buy a fountain pen or a fishing rod, make a telephone call or go to the movies, buy a roll of film or join a club, take a train ride or rent a deposit box.

If all this makes you feel like blowing your brains out, remember that Uncle Sam has a tax on firearms and ammunition too.

Jewish Passover To Start Today

NEW YORK (AP)—Passover begins at sundown today for Jews throughout the world.

The Festival of Freedom commemorates the Hebrew Exodus from Egypt. Orthodox and Conservative Jews observe the season for eight days, and Reform Jews for seven.

The first Passover supper, or Seder, will bring Jewish families together tonight. The meal consists of foods symbolic of the time of the Exodus.

The society also adopted a resolution expressing gratitude for the long service of John M. Pfadt of Columbus, Ohio Traffic Bureau Chief of The Associated Press, who will retire soon after 38 years of service.

NEW YORK (AP)—Dr. Henry M. Scheer says he wants it known that reports of his death are inaccurate.

He said his family has received more than 50 telephone calls, letters and telegrams of condolence. He is worried that his practice will dwindle because patients won't call if they think him dead.

The misunderstanding arose when another Dr. Henry Scheer died recently. The death notice appeared in newspapers. That started the trouble for the living Dr. Scheer. Some of his friends even attended the funeral of the other doctor.

The late Tom Wilson, former publisher of The Circleville Herald who died recently, was praised in a resolution adopted by the Associated Press Society of Ohio.

The resolution was presented by Glen Geib, former editor of The Herald and now with the Fremont News-Messenger. The late Edgar T. Wolfe Sr., co-publisher of The Columbus Dispatch and Ohio State Journal was also honored.

Geib also served as president of the Associated Press Society. He was succeeded in this job by Murray Powers, managing editor of the Akron Beacon Journal, during a two-day meeting of the society held in Columbus over the weekend.

The society, made up of editors of Ohio member newspapers of The Associated Press, also elected Howard C. Over, managing editor of the Chillicothe Gazette, as vice-president; Clyde C. ### 'Longer Range' Aid Program Is Urged

WASHINGTON (AP)—The U. S. Chamber of Commerce recommended today a "longer range" foreign aid program calling for an appropriation of $3.6 billion for the fiscal year starting July 1.

Its suggestions would entail a cut of about $800 million in President Eisenhower's request for $4.4 billion, a reduction far less drastic than many members of Congress are advocating.

The Chamber also recommended what it termed "suitable assistance" to neutral nations "without requiring them to ally themselves militarily with the West."

Victory Seen For Young King

Leftist Is Included In Newest Cabinet

AMMAN (AP)—Hussein Fakhri Khalidi, a pro-Western political leader, was named Jordan's new premier today. This was a victory for King Hussein in a six-day-old cabinet crisis.

The 7-man cabinet includes Suleiman Nabulsi, the leftwing National Socialist party leader dismissed as premier last week.

(Dispatches from Amman are under censorship. Earlier advices reaching Damascus pictured Hussein as gaining steadily in a bold struggle to purge pro-Egyptian leaders from Jordan's army and political life. Sunday Hussein exiled the Jordan army's pro-Egyptian chief of staff. Despite this, the major elements of the Jordan army were apparently behind the king.)

Bahjat Talhouni, chief of the royal cabinet, confirmed that the new government had been formed.

TENSION has gripped Jordan during the last few days of the crisis. But it was generally hoped now that the country will return to normal.

The cabinet was top-heavy with independents. Besides Khaliki, who is an independent, the new government will have five other independents and one National Socialist.

Appointment of Nabulsi was apparently with the support of the strong National Socialist party, which controls 13 seats in parliament.

Other members of the cabinet are former premiers Said Mufit and Fawzi Mulki; Suleiman Sukkar, former leader of the Jordanian senate; Dr. Amin Madjaj and Majid Abdulhadi.

Khalidi's success at forming a government came as a surprise. Earlier reports said Mufit was still trying to set up a cabinet.

Hussein emerged from the crisis with a greater stature than ever. Khalidi is a Palestine refugee. This is important since Palestinians form more than a third of the population.

The Eisenhower Doctrine for the Middle East actually set off the crisis. Then it developed into a struggle for power between extremists and moderates.

In Damascus, the Jordanian Embassy issued a statement saying Hussein adheres to the "liberal Arab policy" drawn up by Hussein, King Saud of Saudi Arabia, and Presidents Nasser of Egypt and Shukri Kuwaly of Syria.

The statement said Hussein was about to end his talks with Jordanian party leaders on forming a new cabinet.

The new government's policy would, the statement reaffirmed Arab neutrality in the East-West cold war, but took no public stand on Communist penetration of the Middle East or the Eisenhower Middle East doctrine.

The embassy press statement denied what it described as "misleading rumors" of rioting and violence in Jordan, and that "disension occurred in the Jordanian army."

Syrian Premier Sabri Assali expressed hope in Damascus that stability would be restored soon in Jordan. He added that Syria and all other Arab states are "keen over the safeguarding of Jordan's independence and unity."

By contrast the implanted cancers grew in most of the cancer patients, until removed one to six weeks later. In four patients, the cancers recurred and grew until removed.

The studies proved, said Dr. Southam, that cancer patients lack defense mechanisms which healthy people have. Blood studies showed the cancer patients had less of an unusual protein in the blood, properdin, which is known to play a role in the body's defense mechanisms.

Amounts of properdin varied with ability to reject the cancers. Dr. Southam said there's not yet any direct evidence that properdin causes destruction of the cancers, but it's a possibility.

High Swedish Official Held As Soviet Spy

STOCKHOLM, Sweden (AP)—A high official of Sweden's Atomic Energy Commission has been arrested on charges of spying for Russia.

A police spokesman said 29-year-old Robert Folke Damstedt, the commission's assistant secretary, is being held for trial on charges of atomic espionage.

One unofficial report said a second person was held as a suspect in the case, which was said also to involve sale to Russia of blueprints of Sweden's newest submarines.

The disclosure added another round to the stormy exchange of spy charges and countercharges between Russia and Sweden since World War II. Last month Sweden delivered a formal protest to the Kremlin against Soviet espionage in this traditionally neutral country. That protest was coupled with rejection of a Soviet complaint that 14 spies for Sweden had been arrested and sentenced in Russia.

Unofficial reports described the Damstedt case as the most serious in the long chain since World War II. It was learned, however, that an assistant secretary, Damstedt performed mainly administrative functions and that he was a legal expert rather than a nuclear physicist.

News of the arrest came at a time when Sweden military leaders are publicly urging the government to begin manufacturing Swedish tactical atomic weapons or buy them from the West.

CHICAGO (AP)—A scientist foresees the day when you might have a little substitute glass-and-rubber heart placed permanently inside your chest.

It would replace your own sick heart which threatened death. Or you might get a substitute kidney, sewed inside your abdomen, to rescue failing kidneys.

These substitute organs might have to be plugged into an electric socket to work. But they would keep you alive.

Research on such projects is beginning, and the general principles make them look feasible, says Dr. Peter F. Salisbury of Cedars of Lebanon Hospital, Los Angeles. He took this look ahead in talking his idea Sunday night as president of the American Society for small devices permanently put inside the human body.

Dr. Salisbury said one possible design for a substitute heart is a double pump, each unit a U-shaped tube made of silicon rubber.

One pump would take blood coming to the heart from the veins and pump it through the lungs for fresh oxygen. The other would collect blood coming from the lungs and pump it through the body.

The tubes could work on an hydraulic pressure principle borrowed from milking machines. The blood would be squeezed through tubes, wide at the opening, which grow progressively smaller.

The tubes would be inside a

Uncle Sam Takes His Big Tax Bite

WASHINGTON (AP)—Uncle Sam takes his big tax bite today, a $60 billion levy. For the rest of the year he has to get along on nibbles.

This is the day income taxes are due. They total about $38½ billion. Corporations, too, have to settle their tax accounts with the government. That comes to about $21½ billion more.

But it takes more than $60 billion to run the government. The budget for the fiscal year which ends June 30 is $6.6 billion.

On top of that there is nearly $13 billion that has to be applied to such things as the Social Security trust fund, the highway trust fund, the railroad retirement account and refunds to taxpayers.

That leaves Uncle Sam needing about $23½ billion after individuals and corporations ante up their tax money today.

But don't feel too sorry for him. He has ways of getting it.

EXCISE TAXES, for instance, this year will net the government about $10½ billion.

Every time you buy a package of cigarettes, Uncle Sam gets 8

Dayton Papers Publishing Again

DAYTON (AP)—The Dayton Daily News, hit by a strike of a Teamsters Union local made up of janitors and maids, planned to publish today, but the newspaper still faced a delivery problem.

The News' sister paper, the morning Journal Herald, published today for the first time since last Thursday, but there was only a limited distribution of the paper because promised delivery trucks failed to show up.

Sunday, printers crossed picket lines set up by 25 janitors striking for wage increases, and went to work on Monday's edition of the morning newspaper. Previously, a majority of the printers respected the picket line.

The Festival of Freedom commemorates the Hebrew Exodus from Egypt. Orthodox and Conservative Jews observe the season for eight days, and Reform Jews for seven.

A 'Dead' Doctor Of Little Value

NEW YORK (AP)—Dr. Henry M. Scheer says he wants it known that reports of his death are inaccurate.

He said his family has received more than 50 telephone calls, letters and telegrams of condolence. He is worried that his practice will dwindle because patients won't call if they think him dead.

The misunderstanding arose when another Dr. Henry Scheer died recently. The death notice appeared in newspapers. That started the trouble for the living Dr. Scheer. Some of his friends even attended the funeral of the other doctor.

AP Society Pays Tribute To Tom Wilson

The late Tom Wilson, former publisher of The Circleville Herald who died recently, was praised in a resolution adopted by the Associated Press Society of Ohio.

The resolution was presented by Glen Geib, former editor of The Herald and now with the Fremont News-Messenger. The late Edgar T. Wolfe Sr., co-publisher of The Columbus Dispatch and Ohio State Journal was also honored.

Geib also served as president of the Associated Press Society. He was succeeded in this job by Murray Powers, managing editor of the Akron Beacon Journal, during a two-day meeting of the society held in Columbus over the weekend.

The society, made up of editors of Ohio member newspapers of The Associated Press, also elected Howard C. Over, managing editor of the Chillicothe Gazette, as vice-president; Clyde C. Long, magazine editor of the Columbus Dispatch, as treasurer; B. T. Johns, Columbus, Ohio Bureau Chief of The Associated Press, as secretary; and Clair C. Stebbins, editor of the Zanesville Signal and the Times Recorder, as a trustee.

The society also adopted a resolution expressing gratitude for the long service of John M. Pfadt of Columbus, Ohio Traffic Bureau Chief of The Associated Press, who will retire soon after 38 years of service.

General Telephone Plans Take-Over

MARION (AP)—General Telephone Co. of Ohio will take over operations of the Ohio Consolidated Telephone Co. this year.

Ohio Consolidated serves 55,460 telephones in 27 Ohio and Kentucky counties.

General Telephone's 1956 net income, the report said, was $1,629,048, an 8.11 per cent increase over the $1,339,246 income for 1955. Expenditures for new plant facilities and equipment amounted to $5,070,461, the report said.

Another $6,400,000 is scheduled to be spent on additional plant expansion and improvement, according to the report.

Victory Seen For Young King

Leftist Is Included In Newest Cabinet

AMMAN (AP)—Hussein Fakhri Khalidi, a pro-Western political leader, was named Jordan's new premier today. This was a victory for King Hussein in a six-day-old cabinet crisis.

The 7-man cabinet includes Suleiman Nabulsi, the leftwing National Socialist party leader dismissed as premier last week.

(Dispatches from Amman are under censorship. Earlier advices reaching Damascus pictured Hussein as gaining steadily in a bold struggle to purge pro-Egyptian leaders from Jordan's army and political life. Sunday Hussein exiled the Jordan army's pro-Egyptian chief of staff. Despite this, the major elements of the Jordan army were apparently behind the king.)

Bahjat Talhouni, chief of the royal cabinet, confirmed that the new government had been formed.

TENSION has gripped Jordan during the last few days of the crisis. But it was generally hoped now that the country will return to normal.

The cabinet was top-heavy with independents. Besides Khalidi, who is an independent, the new government will have five other independents and one National Socialist.

Appointment of Nabulsi was apparently with the support of the strong National Socialist party, which controls 13 seats in parliament.

Other members of the cabinet are former premiers Said Mufti and Fawzi Mulki; Suleiman Sukkar, former leader of the Jordanian senate; Dr. Amin Madaj and Majid Abdulhadi.

Khalidi's success at forming a government came as a surprise. Earlier reports said Mufti was still trying to set up a cabinet.

Hussein emerged from the crisis with a greater stature than ever. Khalidi is a Palestinian refugee. This is important since Palestinians form more than a third of the population.

The Eisenhower Doctrine for the Middle East actually set off the crisis. Then it developed into a struggle for power between extremists and moderates.

In Damascus, the Jordanian Embassy issued a statement saying Hussein adheres to the "liberal Arab policy" drawn up by Hussein, King Saud of Saudi Arabia, and Presidents Nasser of Egypt and Shukri Kuwalty of Syria.

The statement said Hussein was about to end his talks with Jordanian party leaders on forming a new cabinet.

The new government's policy would, the statement reaffirmed Arab neutrality in the East-West cold war, but took no public stand on Communist penetration of the Middle East or the Eisenhower Middle East doctrine.

The embassy press statement denied what it described as "misleading rumors" of rioting and violence in Jordan, and that "disension occurred in the Jordanian army."

Syrian Premier Sabri Assaifi expressed hope in Damascus that stability would be restored soon in Jordan. He added that Syria and all other Arab states are "keen over the safeguarding of Jordan's independence and unity."

'Longer Range' Aid Program Is Urged

WASHINGTON (AP)—The U. S. Chamber of Commerce recommended today a "longer range" foreign aid program calling for an appropriation of $3.6 billion for the fiscal year starting July 1.

Its suggestions would entail a cut of about $800 million in President Eisenhower's request for $4.4 billion, a reduction far less drastic than many members of Congress are advocating.

The Chamber also recommended what it termed "suitable assistance" to neutral nations "without requiring them to ally themselves militarily with the West."

ity," and hope efforts of Hussein and party leaders could lead to a way out of the present crisis.

A STRIKE against the 22-year-old monarch's army-backed coup was threatened as resentment spread among followers of the popular Nabulsi, a leading opponent of ties with the West and an advocate of close relations with Egypt, Syria and the Soviet Union.

Tanks guarded the royal palace in the wake of two reported clashes between army units loyal to Hussein and military elements sympathetic to Syria and Egypt.

Syrian sources in Damascus described the King's action as a pro-Iraq coup d'etat. Iraq is ruled by Hussein's cousin, King Faisal, and is the special object of Egyptian and Syrian hatred because of its alliance with the West through the Baghdad Pact.

Damascus papers reported rumors that the Iraqi brigade stationed along Jordan's eastern frontier had been reinforced by a heavily equipped regiment.

A Syrian official denied earlier reports that a Syrian armored regiment had moved last week into north Jordan. About 3,000 Syrian troops already were in that sector of Jordan, stationed there since the Israeli invasion of Egypt last fall. Saudi Arabian troops are stationed in south Jordan.

Loss Of Temper Ends In Stabbing

CINCINNATI (AP)—Police say a 33-year-old woman has admitted stabbing William Gibson, 44, to death because he was "fooling around" pretending to attack her with a knife.

No charge was immediately placed against Mildred Ferguson who, officers said, told them she lost her temper and grabbed the knife. Shaw said she did not believe she had seriously hurt Gibson Sunday until she found his body and called police.

Pope To Continue Campaign To Get Nuclear Weapon Ban

VATICAN CITY (AP)—Pope Pius XII says he will keep trying to get nuclear weapons outlawed. He looks to the United Nations to achieve this.

The pope said this Sunday at a private audience, unusual for Palm Sunday, with Dr. Masatoshi Matsushita, special Japanese envoy touring Europe to agitate for an end to tests of nuclear weapons. Matsushita said he was "very much pleased" with the pontiff's attitude.

Vatican sources, confirming the envoy's version of the pope's remarks, hinted the pope may refer to nuclear weapons again in his Easter message next Sunday.

The seriousness with which he regards the matter was indicated by his reception of the Japanese envoy. Sunday usually is a day to which he devotes great reverence. Dr. Matsushita, personal representative of Japan's prime minister, came here from Britain, where he appealed to British leaders to call off their British H-Bomb tests at Christmas Island.

THE APPEALS were rejected but Matsushita said he believed the British eventually would heed, "as a result of the moral pressure we are exerting."

News In Brief

Nasser Losing Grip On Arabs

CAIRO (AP)—Egypt's President Nasser faces the fight of his political life to retain leadership of the Arab world after King Hussein's coup in Jordan.

Hussein's overthrow of pro-Egyptian elements represents a major break in the so-called "free Arab" front, a grouping of states who oppose the anti-Communist Baghdad Pact and formal Arab ties with the West. The group is composed of Egypt, Syria, Jordan, Saudi Arabia and Yemen.

Winning Jordan over to this Arab clique had been one of Nasser's signal victories over the West of the last two years.

He achieved this through the ouster of Gen. Sir John Bagot Glubb, British founder of the Arab Legion, and the termination of the British-Jordan treaty.

Early this year, Nasser's leadership was challenged by President Eisenhower.

Even Nasser's old ally, King Saud of Saudi Arabia, began flirting with America and lined up in a strong anti-Communist position.

Arab states outside Nasser's bloc—Lebanon, Iraq, Libya and Tunisia — quickly fell into line with the Eisenhower Doctrine.

With Hussein's coup, Nasser is left with only Syria and Yemen, the latter a negligible factor, as allies on whom he can depend completely to follow his anti-Western, pro-Soviet line.

JERUSALEM, Israeli Sector (AP)—The Easter tourist season is shaping up today as the poorest in years. Only about 1,500 foreigners have arrived in Israel and Jordan to observe the holiday and make the pilgrimage to holy places. Last year the number was 15,000.

COLOMBO (AP)—Nineteen members of the Ceylon Parliament left today for a two-week visit to Russia and a week's stay in Czechoslovakia. The group includes Trotskyites, bitter Communist foes of Stalin's Russian regime.

HONG KONG (AP)—Red China has launched a 15-year Russian-designed plan to tame the Yellow River. A Peiping radio broadcast announced a series of 46 dams will harness the river, which has been called "China's Sorrow" because of the millions it has drowned in the country's long history.

SEOUL (AP)—National police claimed today that for the first time since the Korean War ended more than 3 1/2 years ago, Communist guerrillas have been wiped out in South Korea.

50 Pacifists Plan To Pay No Income Tax

CINCINNATI (AP)—A group of 50 members of a pacifist group called the Peacemakers have decided not to pay income taxes this year because of military spending.

That's the report Sunday night by a former Methodist minister, the Rev. Ernest Bromley, 44, who said, "there are probably some non-payers in every state."

He said the group believes that members cannot conscientiously contribute to war purposes, and that up to 80 per cent of income taxes goes to past, present, or future wars.

He said that about 50 avowed non-payers were listed in an announcement of their intentions mailed Friday, but that seven more have joined them. Deadline for filing personal tax returns is today.

Rev. Mr. Bromley said that the group has no headquarters and no officers, but keeps in touch with members through mailing addresses at Cincinnati, Philadelphia, and Chicago.

He said the group also opposes registration for the draft and work in war plants.

He said, "The movement is about eight or nine years old. It's patterned after the Gandhi movement, with emphasis on the individual changing rather than getting other people to do something."

N-S Freeway Route Said Undermined

COLUMBUS (AP)—Gov. C. William O'Neill said today the new north-south freeway is part of the interstate system and federal officials will determine the exact route.

O'Neill explained the federal government put up 90 per cent and the state 10 per cent of the cost of constructing the new route. The governor said the exact route had not been determined.

"It will be where the engineers find it can best be built," O'Neill said. "It will be between U. S. 42 and Ohio 3. We are going to put this road under contract in July."

"This will be the best highway

Free Restoration Of Courthouse Lawn Offered To Commissioners

A new proposal in the off-again, on-again Pickaway County Courthouse parking lot controversy was discussed this morning by the county commissioners. However, at press time, no decision had been reached on the proposal or the ultimate fate of the half-completed lot.

Arthur Wilkin and William Hickey, taxpayers who earlier in the year obtained an injunction, now vacated, against further procedure with the parking lot project, outlined for the commissioners a plan whereby, according to Wilkin and Hickey, the C. F. Replogle Co. would remove the sand and gravel now

Cancer Drive Will Canvass Homes Tonight

Volunteers of the Pickaway County Chapter of the American Cancer Society will make a house to house canvass tonight of all homes in the city to solicit contributions for this year's fund drive.

The house to house solicitation committee which numbers some 50 volunteers is headed by Mrs. Alonzo Hill.

Anyone not contacted tonight may arrange to contribute to the drive by telephoning Mrs. Hill at 510-X.

The importance of the drive is underscored by cancer data compiled from the records of local physicians. Most recent figures indicate that 72 new cancer cases were treated by doctors in the county last year.

However, the Cancer Society emphasizes that the number of new cancer cases in the area was much higher because the figures do not include those patients who sought treatment in Columbus.

Victory Seen For Young King

ity," and hope efforts of Hussein and party leaders could lead to a way out of the present crisis.

A STRIKE against the 22-year-old monarch's army-backed coup was threatened as resentment spread among followers of the popular Nabulsi, a leading opponent of ties with the West and an advocate of close relations with Egypt, Syria and the Soviet Union.

Tanks guarded the royal palace in the wake of two reported clashes between army units loyal to Hussein and military elements sympathetic to Syria and Egypt.

Syrian sources in Damascus described the King's action as a pro-Iraq coup d'etat. Iraq is ruled by Hussein's cousin, King Faisal, and is the special object of Egyptian and Syrian hatred because of its alliance with the West through the Baghdad Pact.

Damascus papers reported rumors that the Iraqi brigade stationed along Jordan's eastern frontier had been reinforced by a heavily equipped regiment.

A Syrian official denied earlier reports that a Syrian armored regiment had moved last week in to north Jordan. About 3,000 Syrian troops already were in that sector of Jordan, stationed there since the Israeli invasion of Egypt last fall. Saudi Arabian troops are stationed in south Jordan.

Loss Of Temper Ends In Stabbing

CINCINNATI (AP)—Police say a 33-year-old woman has admitted stabbing William Gibson, 44, to death because he was "fooling around" pretending to attack her with a knife.

No charge was immediately placed against Mildred Ferguson who, officers said, told them she lost her temper and grabbed the knife. Shaw said she did not believe she had seriously hurt Gibson Sunday until she found his body and called police.

Pope To Continue Campaign To Get Nuclear Weapon Ban

VATICAN CITY (AP)—Pope Pius XII says he will keep trying to get nuclear weapons outlawed. He looks to the United Nations to achieve this.

The pope said this Sunday at a private audience, unusual for Palm Sunday, with Dr. Masatoshi Matsushita, special Japanese envoy touring Europe to agitate for an end to tests of nuclear weapons. Matsushita said he was "very much pleased" with the pontiff's attitude.

Vatican sources, confirming the envoy's version of the pope's remarks, hinted the pope may refer to nuclear weapons again in his Easter message next Sunday. The seriousness with which he regards the matter was indicated by his reception of the Japanese envoy. Sunday usually is a day to which he devotes great reverence. Dr. Matsushita, personal representative of Japan's prime minister, came here from Britain, where he appealed to British leaders to call off their coming H-Bomb tests at Christmas Island.

THE APPEALS were rejected but Matsushita said he believed the British eventually would heed, "as a result of the moral pressure we are exerting."

News In Brief

Nasser Losing Grip On Arabs

CAIRO (AP)—Egypt's President Nasser faces the fight of his political life to retain leadership of the Arab world after King Hussein's coup in Jordan.

Hussein's overthrow of pro-Egyptian elements represents a major break in the so-called "free Arab" front, a grouping of states who oppose the anti-Communist Baghdad Pact and formal Arab ties with the West. The group is composed of Egypt, Syria, Jordan, Saudi Arabia and Yemen.

Winning Jordan over to this Arab clique had been one of Nasser's signal victories over the West of the last two years.

He achieved this through the ouster of Gen. Sir John Bagot Glubb, British founder of the Arab Legion, and the termination of the British-Jordan treaty.

Early this year, Nasser's leadership was challenged by President Eisenhower.

Even Nasser's old ally, King Saud of Saudi Arabia, began flirting with America and lined up in a strong anti-Communist position.

Arab states outside Nasser's bloc—Lebanon, Iraq, Libya and Tunisia—quickly fell into line with the Eisenhower Doctrine.

With Hussein's coup, Nasser is left with only Syria and Yemen, the latter a negligible factor, as allies on whom he can depend completely to follow his anti-Western, pro-Soviet line.

JERUSALEM, Israeli Sector
—The Easter tourist season is shaping up today as the poorest in years. Only about 1,500 foreigners have arrived in Israel and Jordan to observe the holiday and make the pilgrimage to holy places. Last year the number was 45,000.

COLOMBO (AP)—Nineteen members of the Ceylon Parliament left today for a two-week visit to Russia and a week's stay in Czechoslovakia. The group includes Trotskyites, bitterest Communist foes of Stalin's Russian regime.

HONG KONG (AP)—Red China has launched a 15-year Russian-designed plan to tame the Yellow River. A Peiping radio broadcast announced a series of 46 dams will harness the river, which has been called "China's Sorrow" because of the millions it has drowned in the country's long history.

SEOUL (AP)—National police claimed today that for the first time since the Korean War ended more than 3 1/2 years ago, Communist guerrillas have been wiped out in South Korea.

50 Pacifists Plan To Pay No Income Tax

CINCINNATI (AP)—A group of 50 members of a pacifist group called the Peacemakers have decided not to pay income taxes this year because of military spending.

That's the report Sunday night by a former Methodist minister, the Rev. Ernest Bromley, 44, who said, "there are probably some non-payers in every state."

He said the group believes that members cannot conscientiously contribute to war purposes, and that up to 80 per cent of income taxes goes to past, present, or future wars.

He said that about 50 avowed non-payers were listed in an announcement of their intentions mailed Friday, but that seven more have joined them. Deadline for filing personal tax returns is today.

Rev. Mr. Bromley said that the group has no headquarters and no officers, but keeps in touch with members through mailing addresses at Cincinnati, Philadelphia, and Chicago.

He said the group also opposes registration for the draft and work in war plants.

He said, "The movement is about eight or nine years old. It's patterned after the Gandhi movement, with emphasis on the individual changing rather than getting other people to do something."

N-S Freeway Route Said Undertermined

COLUMBUS (AP)—Gov. C. William O'Neill said today the new north-south freeway is part of the interstate system and federal officials will determine the exact route.

O'Neill explained the federal government put up 90 per cent and the state 10 per cent of the cost of constructing the new route. The governor said the exact route had not been determined.

"It will be where the engineers find it can best be built," O'Neill said. "It will be between U. S. 42 and Ohio 3. We are going to put this road under contract in July."

"This will be the best highway

Free Restoration Of Courthouse Lawn Offered To Commissioners

A new proposal in the off-again, on-again Pickaway County Courthouse parking lot controversy was discussed this morning by the county commissioners. However, at press time, no decision had been reached on the proposal or the ultimate fate of the half-completed lot.

Arthur Wilkin and William Hickey, taxpayers who earlier in the year obtained an injunction, new vacated, against further procedure with the parking lot project, outlined for the commissioners a plan whereby, according to Wilkin and Hickey, the C. F. Repligle Co. would remove the sand and gravel now

Cancer Drive Will Canvass Homes Tonight

Volunteers of the Pickaway County Chapter of the American Cancer Society will make a house to house canvass tonight of all homes in the city to solicit contributions for this year's fund drive.

The house to house solicitation committee which numbers some 50 volunteers is headed by Mrs. Alonzo Hill.

Anyone not contacted tonight may arrange to contribute to the drive by telephoning Mrs. Hill at 510-X.

The importance of the drive is underscored by cancer data compiled from the records of local physicians. Most recent figures indicate that 72 new cancer cases were treated by doctors in the county last year.

However, the Cancer Society emphasizes that the number of new cancer cases in the area was much higher because the figures do not include those patients who sought treatment in Columbus.

In America, it will be a limited access road. You can only get on and

2 Ohio Building and Loan Firms Hold Unique Position

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio has only two building and loan firms licensed also to engage in the small loan business.

They hold that unique position because of an exemption in strict laws limiting building and loan companies to real estate mortgages. The exemptions permit the two companies to accept deposits and use them also in making chattel loans.

The firms are Economy Savings and Loan Co., Columbus, and City Loan and Savings Co., Lima. Both have offices in several cities.

Last year City Loan had nearly 108 million dollars in deposits, and Economy reported nearly 42 millions on deposit.

Benjamin F. Miller of Columbus, Economy secretary, expressed pride in his firm's record.

"Never since organization in 1892 has Economy failed to pay a depositor his money," Miller said. "We are very proud of that record."

"The fact of the matter is that it has been proved that the chattel loan business is safer than the mortgage loan business."

"Your money is just as well protected in Economy as in any building and loan company in Ohio and you can get it whenever you want it."

Miller said Economy makes no real estate loans and has no intention of doing so, although the company's charter permits operations in that field.

"They should be kept separate," he asserted, "because the small loan business is entirely different from the real estate loan business."

The Lima company last year listed only $81,606 worth of first mortgage loans in its report showing almost 118 millions in "other loans" outstanding. For the same period, Economy reported slightly in excess of 44 millions in "other loans."

Economy paid 4 per cent on deposits and City Loan 3½ per cent, compared with 3 per cent paid by many of Ohio's 454 building and loan associations and a lower rate by banks.

Col. Daniel H. Pond of Cleveland and his brother, Henry, organized Economy Loan as a building and loan company to make small loans on chattels. They felt that wage earners needed such an institution because, until then, many were at the mercy of "loan sharks" who charged up to 10 per cent every two weeks.

In 1913, officials of the City Loan and Savings Co. of Wapakoneta, which had been making chattel loans, visited the Ponds to study their methods and later expanded their business.

Ohio was one of the first states to regulate the small loan business in 1916. The state, in 1923, revised its building and loan laws with express provision for the Cleveland and Wapakoneta firms to continue small loan operations under their building and loan charters.

Capital Finance Corp., which operates in 15 states, bought Economy Loan in 1937. Economy operates 95 Ohio offices with a dozen in Columbus. When Capital took over, Economy had deposits of only $625,000. Now they total nearly 42 millions and company assets aggregate 48 million.

Assets of City Loan and Savings Co., Lima, were nearly 140½ millions last year.

Ohio's small loan laws set an interest rate of 3 per cent a month on the unpaid balance of loans to $150; 2 per cent a month on loans between $150 and $300, and 8 per cent a year on loans of more than $300. Some other states have higher rates on loans against chattels such as furniture and cars.

Miller, an attorney, got into the small loan business in 1920, he said, because of a belief in its promising future. The National Consumer Finance Assn. recently honored him for his record of 36 years in that business.

Miller attributes the growth of small loan activities to two major factors: Loans are small, averaging $125, and repayments are made in monthly installments over a short period.

By contrast, he explained, real estate loans are for large sums over a long period of years. "When the big depression knocked the bottom out of the market," he recalled, "hundreds of people turned their property back because it was worth less than the mortgage on it."

He said the average small loan has increased in size in recent years. "The average loan is twice what it used to be because of inflation," he reported.

Miller credited retail installment plans for a general increase in purchases of automobiles, television sets, appliances and the like. Such purchases, he said, usually are financed by direct loans or by retailers on the installment plan. Dealers generally sell their chattel mortgages to finance companies. He said his company and many others in the small loan field engage in both types of financial transactions.

Mrs. Hockensmith was placed under an armed guard at the hospital.

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—Mrs. Jessie E. Hockensmith, 37, was in serious condition at a hospital here today after police said she slashed two of her children's throats with a butcher knife and then cut her own throat and wrists.

Her oldest son, William Jr., 12, died.

A daughter, Jo Carol, 10, was reported in fair condition. A third child, Hadley, 6, escaped by running to a neighbor's house, police said.

The woman's husband, Maj. William A. Hockensmith, 37, of the Dayton Air Force Depot told police he ran downstairs in their home here Sunday when he heard the "commotion" and found his son lying on the floor and his wife standing with two butcher knives in her hand.

He said he was unable to explain why his wife went "berserk" except that she had been in bad health and was feeling "despondent."

Mrs. Hockensmith was placed under an armed guard at the hospital.

MOSCOW (AP)—The Literary Gazette described former President Truman Saturday as a "Missouri Babbitt." Its peg was the fact the Truman Doctrine was inaugurated 10 years ago.

Truman "probably was one of the least talented" of all U. S. Presidents, the Soviet newspaper said. "This little man accidentally became the uncrowned king of the capitalist world and he apparently never recovered from the shock of that moment. It cost him his equilibrium for the rest of his life."

The attack on Truman came as the Moscow Radio eulogized President Franklin D. Roosevelt. The broadcast charged Roosevelt's successors engineered an about-face in American relations with the Soviet Union.

Canada Scheduled For New Election

OTTAWA (AP)—Gov. Gen. Vincent Massey has dissolved Parliament and called for election of a new House of Commons June 10.

The outcome will determine whether the Liberal party headed by Prime Minister Louis St. Laurent will continue to govern Canada or will be replaced by the main opposition party, the progressive Conservatives, headed by John Diefenbaker. The present house includes 168 Liberals and 50 Progressive Conservatives.

TV 'Good Taste' Rulings Studied

Many Programs Barred By Personal Prejudice

By CHARLES MERCER

NEW YORK (AP)—Every television producer, director and writer will tell you of stories he wants to do on the home screen. But "they" won't let him.

"They" are not as much individuals as the generally carefully guarded overtone of the industry which wishes to keep its programming within "good taste" and is frightened of offending anyone. It's a curious situation.

There is, for example, one program which owns the television rights to MacKinlay Kantor's "Andersonville," but will not dramatize the novel for fear it will offend elements of our southern population. On the other hand, the offensive action of some of our ancestors up in Salem, Mass., some time ago when they tortured and killed fellow citizens for witchcraft is considered (and rightfully) absorbing television. In fact, "Odyssey" (CBS-TV) repeated its production of the Salem trials Sunday.

"Good taste" is often a matter of personal prejudices. Since the television audience now embraces almost the entire population, it embraces everybody's prejudices. And so, next season, we're going to see many fairy tales on the home sets — but fairy tales carefully purged of any offensive elements.

The "horror story," a basic and delightful form since men first told tales around a fire, has never been very horrifying on television. Albert McCleery, the producer of "Matinee Theater" (NBC-TV), was telling us last week that he owns TV rights to a vast store of the Dracula-Frankenstein-Vampire school. But he does not use them because some mothers have complained that they frighten the kiddies and they have been found disturbing to patients in mental institutions who watch the program.

Boy, 3, Shows Rare Strategy

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Tommy Hess, 3, had a broken foot and was taken to the doctor's office. The doctor said it would have to be put in a cast. "This may hurt," he added, motioning the youngster to an operating table.

Tommy gave the matter considerable thought before obliging. But not once did he whimper or complain during the 40-minute operation.

Impressed, the doctor praised him afterward.

The boy looked up. "It's the other foot that hurts," he said. He had deliberately extended the wrong foot.

2 Ohio Building and Loan Firms Hold Unique Position

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio has only two building and loan firms licensed also to engage in the small loan business.

They hold that unique position because of an exemption in strict laws limiting building and loan companies to real estate mortgages. The exemptions permit the two companies to accept deposits and use them also in making chattel loans.

The firms are Economy Savings and Loan Co., Columbus, and City Loan and Savings Co., Lima. Both have offices in several cities.

Last year City Loan had nearly 108 million dollars in deposits, and Economy reported nearly 42 millions on deposit.

Benjamin F. Miller of Columbus, Economy secretary, expressed pride in his firm's record.

"Never since organization in 1892 has Economy failed to pay a depositor his money," Miller said. "We are very proud of that record."

"The fact of the matter is that it has been proved that the chattel loan business is safer than the mortgage loan business."

"Your money is just as well protected in Economy as in any building and loan company in Ohio and you can get it whenever you want it."

Miller said Economy makes no real estate loans and has no intention of doing so, although the company's charter permits operations in that field.

"They should be kept separate," he asserted, "because the small loan business is entirely different from the real estate loan business."

The Lima company last year listed only $81,606 worth of first mortgage loans in its report showing almost 118 millions in "other loans" outstanding. For the same period, Economy reported slightly in excess of 44 millions in "other loans."

Economy paid 4 per cent on deposits and City Loan 3½ per cent, compared with 3 per cent paid by many of Ohio's 454 building and loan associations and a lower rate by banks.

Col. Daniel H. Pond of Cleveland and his brother, Henry, organized Economy Loan as a building and loan company to make small loans on chattels. They felt that wage earners needed such an institution because, until then, many were at the mercy of "loan sharks" who charged up to 10 per cent every two weeks.

In 1913, officials of the City Loan and Savings Co. of Wapakoneta, which had been making chattel loans, visited the Ponds to study their methods and later expanded their business.

Ohio was one of the first states to regulate the small loan business in 1916. The state, in 1923, revised its building and loan laws with express provision for the Cleveland and Wapakoneta firms to continue small loan operations under their building and loan charters.

Capital Finance Corp., which operates in 15 states, bought Economy Loan in 1937. Economy operates 95 Ohio offices with a dozen in Columbus. When Capital took over, Economy had deposits of only $625,000. Now they total nearly 42 millions and company assets aggregate 48 million.

Assets of City Loan and Savings Co., Lima, were nearly 140½ millions last year.

Ohio's small loan laws set an interest rate of 3 per cent a month on the unpaid balance of loans to $150; 2 per cent a month on loans between $150 and $300, and 8 per cent a year on loans of more than $300. Some other states have higher rates on loans against chattels such as furniture and cars.

Miller, an attorney, got into the small loan business in 1920, he said, because of a belief in its promising future. The National Consumer Finance Assn. recently honored him for his record of 36 years in that business.

Miller attributes the growth of small loan activities to two major factors: Loans are small, averaging $125, and repayments are made in monthly installments over a short period.

By contrast, he explained, real estate loans are for large sums over a long period of years. "When the big depression knocked the bottom out of the market," he recalled, "hundreds of people turned their property back because it was worth less than the mortgage on it."

He said the average small loan has increased in size in recent years. "The average loan is twice what it used to be because of inflation," he reported.

Miller credited retail installment plans for a general increase in purchases of automobiles, television sets, appliances and the like. Such purchases, he said, usually are financed by direct loans or by retailers on the installment plan. Dealers generally sell their chattel mortgages to finance companies. He said his company and many others in the small loan field engage in both types of financial transactions.

Mother Cuts Throats Of Children, Self

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—Mrs. Jessie E. Hockensmith, 37, was in serious condition at a hospital here today after police said she slashed two of her children's throats with a butcher knife and then cut her own throat and wrists.

Her oldest son, William Jr., 12, died.

A daughter, Jo Carol, 10, was reported in fair condition. A third child, Hadley, 6, escaped by running to a neighbor's house, police said.

The woman's husband, Maj. William A. Hockensmith, 37, of the Dayton Air Force Depot told police he ran downstairs in their home here Sunday when he heard the "commotion" and found his son lying on the floor and his wife standing with two butcher knives in her hand.

He said he was unable to explain why his wife went "berserk" except that she had been in bad health and was feeling "despondent."

Mrs. Hockensmith was placed under an armed guard at the hospital.

Soviet Newspaper Lambastes Truman

MOSCOW (AP)—The Literary Gazette described former President Truman Saturday as a "Missouri Babbitt." Its peg was the fact the Truman Doctrine was inaugurated 10 years ago.

Truman "probably was one of the least talented" of all U. S. Presidents, the Soviet newspaper said. "This little man accidentally became the uncrowned king of the capitalist world and he apparently never recovered from the shock of that moment. It cost him his equilibrium for the rest of his life."

The attack on Truman came as the Moscow Radio eulogized President Franklin D. Roosevelt. The broadcast charged Roosevelt's successors engineered an about-face in American relations with the Soviet Union.

Canada Scheduled For New Election

OTTAWA (AP)—Gov. Gen. Vincent Massey has dissolved Parliament and called for election of a new House of Commons June 10.

The outcome will determine whether the Liberal party headed by Prime Minister Louis St. Laurent will continue to govern Canada or will be replaced by the main opposition party, the progressive Conservatives, headed by John Diefenbaker. The present house includes 168 Liberals and 50 Progressive Conservatives.

TV 'Good Taste' Rulings Studied

Many Programs Barred By Personal Prejudice

By CHARLES MERCER

NEW YORK (AP)—Every television producer, director and writer will tell you of stories he wants to do on the home screen. But "they" won't let him.

"They" are not as much individuals as the generally carefully guarded overtone of the industry which wishes to keep its programming within "good taste" and is frightened of offending anyone. It's a curious situation.

There is, for example, one program which owns the television rights to MacKinlay Kantor's "Andersonville," but will not dramatize the novel for fear it will offend elements of our southern population. On the other hand, the offensive action of some of our ancestors up in Salem, Mass., some time ago when they tortured and killed fellow citizens for witchcraft is considered (and rightfully) absorbing television. In fact, "Odyssey" (CBS-TV) repeated its production of the Salem trials Sunday.

"Good taste" is often a matter of personal prejudices. Since the television audience now embraces almost the entire population, it embraces everybody's prejudices. And so, next season, we're going to see many fairy tales on the

Boy, 3, Shows Rare Strategy

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Tommy Hess, 3, had a broken foot and was taken to the doctor's office. The doctor said it would have to be put in a cast. "This may hurt," he added, motioning the youngster to an operating table.

Tommy gave the matter considerable thought before obliging. But not once did he whimper or complain during the 40-minute operation.

Impressed, the doctor praised him afterward.

The boy looked up. "It's the other foot that hurts," he said. He had deliberately extended the wrong foot.

home sets — but fairy tales carefully purged of any offensive elements.

The "horror story," a basic and delightful form since men first told tales around a fire, has never been very horrifying on television. Albert McCleery, the producer of "Matinee Theater" (NBC-TV), was telling us last week that he owns TV rights to a vast store of the Dracula-Frankenstein-Vampire school. But he does not use them because some mothers have complained that they frighten the kiddies and they have been found disturbing to patients in mental institutions who watch the program.

Proof Of Europe's Slow Welding

When a German general was installed as commander of all land forces in Europe of the North Atlantic Treaty (NATO) powers, the tremendous changes that have occurred since World War II were marked in bold lines.

Observers expected serious demonstrations by the French against giving a top post to a German. It was felt that the centuries-old distrust of anything German and anybody German would cause serious repercussions.

There were some demonstrations, in the French Assembly and elsewhere, but only by the communists. And they demonstrate so often and have shown themselves so anti-French that these had little effect.

Too much importance should not be attached to the French general's refusal to have his picture taken shaking hands with German Gen. Hans Speidel. This indicates a latent distrust still exists, that Gen. Jean-Etienne Valluy was making sure no one would ever be able to wave the picture in front of him and accuse him of being a traitor.

This distrust cannot be wiped out in a few years, but the very fact that the ceremony took place at all should give hope that it can be overcome eventually.

The importance of Speidel's taking command is not really in the fact that he is a German. The importance is in the welding of Europe into a joint defense organization, which took place with creation of NATO and admission of West Germany.

Speidel is merely a symbol that integration of European nations continues on the military plane as well as on the economic.

Laundry workers union head complains about press referring to him as "notorious" and bars reporters from union meeting in Chicago. All washing of dirty linen to be done in private?

Reflections Of Fred Astaire

NEW YORK (AP) — After 52 years in show business, Fred Astaire would still rather talk with his feet than his face.

One of the most conscious artists of his generation when it comes to his trade, which is dancing, Fred is merely self-conscious when it comes to conversation about himself.

Ask him a question, and immediately his foot begins to swing nervously, as though his sophisticated toes wanted to tap the answer in a Morse code of their own. The man distrusts speech because, unlike a dance step, he can't rehearse and polish it to the perfection he aspires to.

Astaire, who recently completed his 30th film "Funny Face", in which he co-stars with Audrey Hepburn, will be 58 next month.

Here he is — unrehearsed: "I have been called the greatest dancer in the world. That is unbelievably complimentary and undeniably erroneous. It rocks me when someone says it.

"What I have done is stand the test of time in my field—musical comedy and movie dancing.

"People today are so age-conscious. It burns me up sometimes. I don't think of myself as being any older than I started in this business.

"I don't do anything particular to keep in shape. I don't have to. I play a little golf, and I keep a small racing breeding farm—three mares and four fillies.

"My stable has paid well over the years. I won a quarter of a million dollars with one horse, Triplicate.

"Can a professional dancer do well at ballroom dancing. Naturally he can, but he rarely finds the time. The cha cha is a great favorite step now, but over the years my own favorite has been the fox trot. It's very comfortable.

"In films I've had a dozen great actresses as dance partners, ranging from Ginger Rogers and Joan Crawford to Miss Hepburn. No, I won't say which was the best or the worst. Would you?

"Men dancers last longer at the business than women generally. There are two reasons. They have more physical strength and the girls get bored with professional dancing in time. It's too hard a life.

"Today show business is really frantic and more competitive than ever. Everybody's in show business.

"Television is all right for the youngsters, but I see no reason to hurry into it. I've reached the point where I don't have to grab all the money in sight.

"Since my wife died two years ago I find again that work is my only real happiness. I try to think that the good old days are today and tomorrow, not all the yesterdays.

"I don't say you have to enjoy your work to win success, but I don't see how you can feel successful in life unless you are doing something you enjoy."

Nasser Is The Man To Watch

The Middle East is as much a muddle today as it was a year ago, if not more so, and the Eisenhower Doctrine and the preachments of John Foster Dulles and the legalisms of Dag Hammarskjöld have produced no end to the belligerence of Egypt or the Jihad of Saudi Arabia or the inclination of Israel to risk its future on the ordeal of arms.

Not since the 8th century has there been such a propulsion of Islamic enthusiasm for power. All that has been accomplished thus far by American diplomacy has been to reduce the authority of Great Britain in the Middle East, to smash the French North African Empire, to imperil the existence of Israel and to drive Nasser into a closer association with Soviet Russia. Should another local war break out in the Middle East, will the United States find itself allied with Soviet Russia against Western Europe? And to what end? Or shall we wait until the Marxist Universal State discovers in Islam a direct competitor and then shall we find ourselves in alliance with Nasser against Russia and Red China?

The peril is that local wars are liable to break out in the Middle East all the time. Quite apart from the Israel-Egypt situation, Jordan, which was manufactured and subsidized by Great Britain, is likely to pass away like the winds of its own deserts. Will it be absorbed by Saudi Arabia or by Syria? If by Saudi Arabia, does Jerusalem remain partitioned; if by Syria, does Jerusalem come under Russian influence?

Will Jordan's future be settled peacefully or will there be a war over it? The United States has undertaken to train a Saudi Arabian army, navy and air force. It does not amount to much and the President was authorized by Congress to spend some extra money in Middle Eastern countries.

But should King Saud attempt to add Jordan to his territory, would the United States be a party to this sort of colonialism, while objecting to British and French and Dutch colonialism? In the pragmatic guess-work that has become American policy, is colonialism virtuous when practised by an African or Asiatic nation and evil when practised by a European country?

There seems to be no consistency in our thinking or in the execution of our foreign policy. Certainly Nasser, who has not exhibited any gratitude for the United States rescuing him from defeat by Great Britain, France and Israel, is still being pampered by American diplomacy, which hopes somehow to wear him away from the Russians who are again using Egypt as a base for the provisioning of Arabic countries with arms and munitions.

Should Nasser turn on Russia, at our prompting, are we prepared to fight Russia over the Middle East? Should Nasser disappoint us by continuing his alliance with Russia, what steps do we plan to take to redeem our position in the Middle East? In a word, have we not moved into a trap which makes war with Soviet Russia over the Middle East an inevitability?

Or to argue conversely, do the Russians need a war in the Middle East while Egypt and Syria work for them in all Arabic countries, meanwhile paralyzing Western opposition to Soviet Russia by lulling the American State Department into a condition of desuetude? Obviously, if Russia can take over the Middle East without war, it is more efficient and smarter to do it that way than to shoulder the burdens of war.

Therefore, it is to be presumed that the Russians will continue to employ political means. Thus far, Russia has been extremely successful in the use of political rather than military weapons.

And there is another advantage in that, namely, that when Westerners see that no general war, involving Russia, occurs, it is assumed that conditions are improving and that right policies are being pursued.

It need never be forgotten that Russia achieved her greatest victory, the conquest of China by Marxism, while the West was preoccupied with the romantic excitements of the Berlin Airlift. There is no reason why we cannot keep our eye on the ball and in the Middle East, our particular ball is the emergence of the Nazi-inspired dictator, Nasser, supported by Communist Russia.

Congressmen learned Dizzy Gillespie got a higher rate of pay from the U. S. than Ike. And all Dizzy had to do was play music, while Ike has to face it.

That's the irony of our standards. We pay the President less for what he knows than we pay a be-bop trumpeter for what he blows.

On the other hand, Ike can claim a popularity of only 35,000,000 or so. Gillespie claims everybody.

Gillespie got $2,150 a week for taking his band on an Africa and Middle East tour. All that, and he was just taking the music back where it came from.

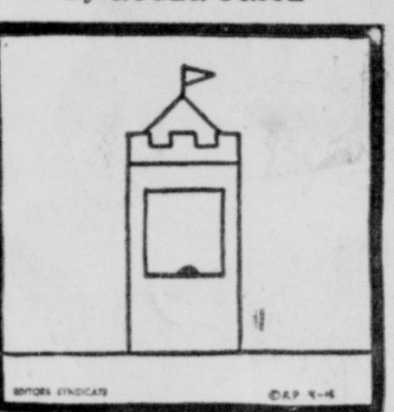

Dizzy's tour was a U. S. Information service project. Be-bop is part of our culture.

The World Today

WASHINGTON (AP) — It is 11 days since E. Herbert Norman, Canadian diplomat accused at an American Senate subcommittee hearing of being a Communist, committed suicide in Egypt. He was his country's ambassador there.

Two questions remain: Was he a Communist? What was the real purpose of the hearings? Norman killed himself after the Internal Security subcommittee released records of two March hearings in which he was flatly called a Communist in the present tense.

There are contradictions in this story. The best way to approach it is from the beginning. Norman was first linked with communism at a 1951 hearing by Dr. Karl W. Wittfogel, a college professor and onetime Communist.

He said he met Norman in a Communist study group in 1938 at Cape Cod. He said Norman was a Communist. Except for saying it was "obvious," he never explained how he knew.

But Wittfogel was a mixed-up witness. That didn't become known until this month, six years later, when Robert Morris, counsel for the subcommittee, said Wittfogel had not met Norman in 1938 at Cape Cod but in 1939 at Columbia.

This writer has gone through the voluminous volumes of the subcommittee hearings back to Wittfogel's testimony in 1951 and, with one exception, could find no instance where one other person ever said Norman was a Communist.

The exception was Morris himself. One thing was clear from reading the hearings: If Norman was not a Communist, he played around with them.

Canada's foreign secretary, Lester B. Pearson, stoutly defended Norman. He said Norman had been investigated in 1951, after Wittfogel's testimony, and had been found loyal to Canada.

Pearson admitted that Norman in his youth had had Communist associations. But when asked twice point-blank on the floor of the House of Commons if Norman was a Communist, Pearson refused to answer.

The story moves up to March 1957. John K. Emmerson, a State Department career diplomat who had been investigated by his department in 1952 and cleared of any suspicion of communism, was called before the subcommittee to testify.

In 1944, when his specialty was psychological warfare, he was assigned by the State Department to Chinese Communist headquarters in Yenan. The Chinese Reds were using Japanese Communist prisoners for propaganda against their own people.

Emmerson wrote a memorandum to his superiors suggesting the United States use Japanese prisoners for propaganda against Japan too. A copy of this note was found by the subcommittee staff last year.

On March 1 Sen. Jenner (R-Ind.), a subcommittee member, told the Senate Emmerson had "slanted" his reports from China. Emmerson was called to testify.

tify, which he did on March 12 and 21.

During his explanation of the note and his later activities in the war, he mentioned meeting Norman, whom he had known since 1940, in Tokyo in 1945. Under constant questioning by Morris, Emmerson said he had no reason to suspect or believe Norman was a Communist.

But Morris, all primed with information on Norman, said, "We have quite a few security reports which have a great deal of information to the effect that he (Norman) is a Communist." He read from a document identified as "from a U. S. government executive agency security report."

He never identified the agency by name. The FBI later denied it had given the subcommittee any information on Norman. Army intelligence issued a similar denial. In his testimony Emmerson said he last saw Norman in Lebanon Oct. 27, 1956.

Emmerson was then with the American consulate in Lebanon, which is Israel's next door neighbor. Norman was coming to Lebanon to present his credentials as minister to that country. The meeting of those two men, Oct. 27, was two days before Israel invaded Egypt.

Before the hearing ended, Morris told Emmerson he was not under investigation. But on April 12 Sen. Eastland (D-Miss.), chairman of the subcommittee, told the Senate the purpose of the hearings was not to investigate Norman but to investigate "personnel in our own State Department, one of whom was stationed in the Middle East." He mentioned no names.

But Eastland's explanation of the purpose of the hearing was not the same as that given this writer previously when he asked Morris to explain the purpose. Morris, who had told Emmerson he was not under investigation, had said:

"We wanted to ask him (Emmerson) about his associations with Communists in China and his association at the time of Suez (meaning the invasion of Egypt by Israel) with a man (Norman) listed in our records as a Communist."

Proof Of Europe's Slow Welding

When a German general was installed as commander of all land forces in Europe of the North Atlantic Treaty (NATO) powers, the tremendous changes that have occurred since World War II were marked in bold lines.

Observers expected serious demonstrations by the French against giving a top post to a German. It was felt that the centuries-old distrust of anything German and anybody German would cause serious repercussions.

There were some demonstrations, in the French Assembly and elsewhere, but only by the communists. And they demonstrate so often and have shown themselves so anti-French that these had little effect.

Too much importance should not be attached to the French general's refusal to have his picture taken shaking hands with German Gen. Hans Speidel. This indicates a latent distrust still exists, that Gen. Jean-Etienne Valluy was making sure no one would ever be able to wave the picture in front of him and accuse him of being a traitor.

This distrust cannot be wiped out in a few years, but the very fact that the ceremony took place at all should give hope that it can be overcome eventually.

The importance of Speidel's taking command is not really in the fact that he is a German. The importance is in the welding of Europe into a joint defense organization, which took place with creation of NATO and admission of West Germany.

Speidel is merely a symbol that integration of European nations continues on the military plane as well as on the economic.

Reflections Of Fred Astaire

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK — After 52 years in show business, Fred Astaire would still rather talk with his feet than his face.

One of the most conscious artists of his generation when it comes to his trade, which is dancing, Fred is merely self-conscious when it comes to conversation about himself.

Ask him a question, and immediately his foot begins to swing nervously, as though his sophisticated toes wanted to tap the answer in a Morse code of their own. The man distrusts speech because, unlike a dance step, he can't rehearse and polish it to the perfection he aspires to.

Astaire, who recently completed his 30th film "Funny Face", in which he co-stars with Audrey Hepburn, will be 58 next month.

Here he is — unheeded: "I have been called the greatest dancer in the world. That is unbelievably complimentary and undeniably erroneous. It rocks me when someone says it.

"What I have done is stand the test of time in my field—musical comedy and movie dancing.

"People today are so age-conscious. It burns me up sometimes. I don't think of myself as being any older than I started in this business.

"I don't do anything particular to keep in shape. I don't have to. I play a little golf, and I keep a small racing breeding farm—three mares and four fillies.

"My stable has paid well over the years. I won a quarter of a million dollars with one horse, Triplets.

"Can a professional dancer do well at ballroom dancing? Naturally he can, but he rarely finds the time. The cha cha is a great favorite step now, but over the years my own favorite has been the fox trot. It's very comfortable.

"In films I've had a dozen great actresses as dance partners, ranging from Ginger Rogers and Joan Crawford to Miss Hepburn. No, I won't say which was the best or the worst. Would you?

"Men dancers last longer at the business than women generally. There are two reasons. They have more physical strength and the girls get bored with professional dancing in time. It's too hard a life.

"Today show business is really frantic and more competitive than ever. Everybody's in show business.

"Television is all right for the youngsters, but I see no reason to hurry into it. I've reached the point where I don't have to grab all the money in sight.

"Since my wife died two years ago I find again that work is my only real happiness. I try to think that the good old days are today and tomorrow, not all the yesterdays.

"I don't say you have to enjoy your work to win success, but I don't see how you can feel successful in life unless you are doing something you enjoy."

Nasser Is The Man To Watch

By George Sokolsky

The Middle East is as much a muddle today as it was a year ago, if not more so, and the Eisenhower Doctrine and the precepts of John Foster Dulles and the legalisms of Dag Hammarskjöld have produced no end to the belligerence of Egypt or the Jehad of Saudi Arabia or the inclination of Israel to risk its future on the ordeal of arms. Not since the 8th century has there been such a propulsion of Islamic enthusiasm for power.

All that has been accomplished thus far by American diplomacy has been to reduce the authority of Great Britain in the Middle East, to smash the French North African Empire, to imperil the existence of Israel and to drive Nasser into a closer association with Soviet Russia. Should another local war break out in the Middle East, will the United States find itself allied with Soviet Russia against Western Europe? And to what end? Or shall we wait until the Marxist Universal State discovers in Islam a direct competitor and then shall we find ourselves in alliance with Nasser against Russia and Red China?

The peril is that local wars are liable to break out in the Middle East all the time. Quite apart from the Israel-Egypt situation, Jordan, which was manufactured and subsidized by Great Britain, is likely to pass away like the winds of its own deserts. Will it be absorbed by Saudi Arabia, or by Syria? If by Saudi Arabia, does Jerusalem remain partitioned; if by Syria, does Jerusalem come under Russian influence?

Will Jordan's future be settled peacefully or will there be a war over it? The United States has undertaken to train a Saudi Arabian army, navy and air force. It does not amount to much and the President was authorized by Congress to spend some extra money in Middle Eastern countries.

But should King Saud attempt to add Jordan to his territory, would the United States be a party to this sort of colonialism, while objecting to British and French and Dutch colonialism? In the pragmatic guess-work that has become American policy, is colonialism virtuous when practised by an African or Asiatic nation and evil when practised by a European country?

There seems to be no consistency in our thinking or in the execution of our foreign policy. Certainly Nasser, who has not exhibited any gratitude for the United States rescuing him from defeat by Great Britain, France and Israel, is still being pampered by American diplomacy, which hopes somehow to wear him away from the Russians who are again using Egypt as a base for the provisioning of Arabic countries with arms and munitions.

Should Nasser turn on Russia, at our prompting, are we prepared to fight Russia over the Middle East? Should Nasser disappoint us by continuing his alliance with Russia, what steps do we plan to take to redeem our position in the Middle East? In a word, have we not moved into a trap which makes war with Soviet Russia over the Middle East an inevitability?

Or to argue conversely, do the Russians need a war in the Middle East while Egypt and Syria work for them in all Arabic countries, meanwhile paralyzing Western opposition to Soviet Russia by lulling the American State Department into a condition of desuetude? Obviously, if Russia can take over the Middle East without war, it is more efficient and smarter to do it that way than to shoulder the burdens of war.

Therefore, it is to be presumed that the Russians will continue to employ political means. Thus far, Russia has been extremely successful in the use of political rather than military weapons.

And there is another advantage in that, namely, that when Westerners see that no general war, involving Russia, occurs, it is assumed that conditions are improving and that right policies are being pursued.

It need never be forgotten that Russia achieved her greatest victory, the conquest of China by Marxism, while the West was preoccupied with the romantic excitements of the Berlin Airlift. There is no reason why we cannot keep our eye on the ball and in the Middle East, our particular ball is the emergence of the Nazi-inspired dictator, Nasser, supported by Communist Russia.

Taking Life Easier Helps Hypertension

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN, M.D.

HYPERTENSION, or high blood pressure. Often they make pressure, a widespread ailment on this day of the income tax deadline, is our most common chronic complaint. It causes more disability and death than any other single disease.

Actually, there is no need to be unduly fearful of this disorder. By recognizing the symptoms, obtaining prompt medical attention and by following your doctor's advice (among other things to take life easier) you can as a rule live a fairly normal life without much danger.

Extensive Examination

Now I don't want you performing a diagnosis on yourself. Even a doctor has difficulty diagnosing high blood pressure from symptoms alone. He must conduct an extensive examination before he is able to determine definitely whether you have hypertension.

While the following symptoms might or might not mean that you have hypertension, they usually indicate that something may be wrong. Very often it is high blood pressure.

Common Symptom

Most common and most incapacitating symptom is frequent headaches. Although a headache may occur at any time of the day, generally those due to hypertension are around when you wake in the morning.

Headaches can be especially dangerous to a person with high blood pressure. Often they make a person tense and irritable. And this can lead to still higher blood pressure.

A feeling of lightheadedness or dizziness may be an indication of hypertension. Generally, though, this particular symptom in itself isn't cause for too much worry.

Early Signs

Both physical and emotional fatigue frequently are signs of early hypertension.

So is blushing, especially when it is accompanied by perspiration, palpitation of the heart and a rumbling of the bowels.

While these symptoms may mean that you have high blood pressure, they don't reveal the extent of your trouble. That's a job for your doctor.

QUESTION AND ANSWER

C. T.: I had my gallbladder removed about eighteen months ago. Three weeks ago, I developed a pain in my stomach, under my shoulder blades and in the right side. What do you think could be causing this?

Answer: It is impossible to tell from the description given, the cause for the pain.

Not infrequently, following the removal of the gallbladder, pains due to spasm of the bile duct may occur. It is possible that a stone may have formed in the bile duct.

You are in need of a careful study to determine the exact cause for your difficulty.

Congressmen learned Dizzy Gillespie got a higher rate of pay from the U. S. than Ike. And all Dizzy had to do was play music, while Ike has to face it.

That's the irony of our standards. We pay the President less for what he knows than we pay a be-bop trumpeter for what he blows.

On the other hand, Ike can claim a popularity of only 35,000,000 or so. Gillespie claims everybody.

Gillespie got $2,150 a week for taking his band on an Africa and Middle East tour. All that, and he was just taking the music back where it came from.

Scene of Christ's Temple Visit Still Holy but Moslem

EDITOR'S NOTE: Nowhere on this earth is war closer than in Palestine, the very region which heard Christ's voice and felt His footsteps. Here is the first in a series of five reports on the condition at Easter, 1957, of sites Christ made holy by His presence nearly 2,000 years ago.
By WILTON WYNN

JERUSALEM, Jordan (P)—Inside the walls of Old Jerusalem is a quiet courtyard surrounding a mosque and a beautiful dome. Some people here believe the trumpet will sound on Judgment Day from a rock beneath the dome and that souls of the dead will be weighed in balance scales hanging from nearby arches.

This is holy ground. Foreigners can enter only by special permission. In some sections, shoes must be removed or heavy slippers put on.

Known to the Arabs as the "Haram es Sherif" (August Sanctuary), this enclosure covers the site of the Jewish Temple of Jesus' day. When Jesus was 12, His parents brought Him from Nazareth to visit the Temple here. While the family was on the north road back to Nazareth, Jesus remained in the Temple with the learned "doctors," astonishing them with His questions and answers. It was His first effort as a teacher of mankind and the only event of Jesus' boyhood related in the Bible.

Many changes have taken place in this area since Jesus was here. The Jewish Temple has been destroyed for nearly 2,000 years. No Jewish priests can enter the area today. But the temple site still is a sacred religious enclosure where learned "doctors" of another faith gather for endless discussion and study.

The Temple area now is a sacred Moslem shrine, the third most holy place in Islam. The contemporary "doctors" are Moslem sheikhs, some of whom come from thousands of miles away to spend their lives in religious contemplation.

These learned Moslems spread carpets or mats on the stone floor of the courtyard and debate minute theological problems for hours. Sometimes one will sit apart from the others. With his legs crossed and the Koran opened on a small wooden rack, he will chant Koranic passages by the hour, his body swaying rhythmically.

Sometimes a learned sheikh will have a small boy sitting in front of him for religious instruction. The sight of such a youngster in a full-length robe sitting at the feet of a sheikh recalls the incident when the boy Jesus talked to the doctors on the same spot.

Of the Temple which Jesus visited, there remains a sacred rock which once formed the Jewish altar. On the rock may be seen the channels down which the blood of sacrificed animals flowed when Jewish priests worshipped here.

This rock supposedly was the altar on which Abraham offered to sacrifice Isaac long before Jerusalem became the center of the Hebrew kingdom. When David established his capital here, he was ordered to build an altar on the threshing-floor of Araunah the Jebusite, which was the same rock. The altar then became the focal point of Solomon's Temple and later the Temple rebuilt by King Herod at the time of Christ. Moslems built the "Dome of the Rock" on the ruins of the Jewish Temple in the Seventh Century. The rock beneath the dome is

Man's Heart Stops Beating For Minute

DAYTON, Ohio (P)—Kirtley Humphrey, 43, Dayton, was presumed dead Sunday after his heart stopped beating for more than one minute. Today, he is reported in fair condition at St. Elizabeth Hospital here.

A surgeon, whose name the hospital would not disclose, massaged Humphrey's heart back to life, officials said. While he was massaging, a hospital spokesman said, the surgeon also stitched together the heart's left ventricle, laid open earlier by a stabbing.

According to hospital officials, Humphrey was brought to the emergency ward for an emergency operation. The surgeon was summoned. Before he arrived, however, Humphrey's heart stopped beating. More than a minute passed before the surgeon could begin massaging Humphrey's heart, a spokesman said. In time, the heart action resumed and Humphrey was reported in fair condition.

Police said they were holding Harold Rich, 38, of nearby New Lebanon, in connection with the stabbing. Officers said Rich and Humphrey were in a fight and that Rich suffered a stab wound in the throat. He was treated at St. Elizabeth's, they said.

now considered the third most sacred site in the Moslem world, behind only Mecca and Medina. It was from this rock that Moslems say the Prophet Mohammed was taken up into Heaven on his horse.

The sacredness of this site has given rise to many legends among superstitious persons here. According to one, the trumpet signaling the Day of Judgment will be sounded from this rock and an arcade standing nearby will hold the scales in which the souls of men will be weighed.

Another legend has it that the dead gather twice a week for prayer in a pit underneath the rock.

Apart from the rock-altar, the only visible remains of the Temple of Jesus' day is the so-called "wailing wall." This stone wall rising from the slums of Old Jerusalem is probably the most sacred spot on earth for Jews. Yet no Jews have visited it since Palestine was partitioned by the Arab-Jewish war of 1948.

The armistice line left the sacred wall in Arab hands, and no Jews have crossed the line in the past nine years.

Jews believe this wall formed part of Herod's Temple, which was still new when Jesus visited it at the age of 12. The massive stone structure forms the western wall of the Moslem Haram es Sherif.

The wall is Moslem property, but before the 1948 war Jews had recognized rights here. They could stand (but not sit) before the wall and pray. They were not allowed to bring chairs or benches or build any kind of buildings here.

In the heavy stone of the wall grooves have been worn away where for centuries Jews kissed and stroked the remnant of their Temple while they waited its destruction and prayed for its restoration.

TOMORROW: Th Baptismal Site.

Steel Output Continuing Slight Decline

CLEVELAND (P)—National steelworks operations, continuing to drop at a gradual rate, were at the lowest point last week since the recovery from last summer's steel strike.

"Steel" magazine, metalworking trade weekly, said mill operations were down to 90.5 per cent of rated capacity, a decline of two points from the previous week.

"Steel" said, however, the predicted downturn is developing at a slower pace than had been expected.

The publication predicted that the 1957 output will be close to the 120 million tons originally estimated. "Steel" noted that much of the work for which steel is required this year has been committed, therefore steelmakers can more accurately estimate the year's operations.

Steelworks operations will continue good through the second quarter, the magazine predicted, with an upsurge in demand late in May and in June partially offsetting an expected second-quarter dip. The upsurge in demand will come, "Steel" said, to beat the anticipated steel price rise.

A third-quarter dip in steel-making operations, caused by the slowdown for auto change-overs and mass vacations, was forecast.

Prices of scrap used in steel-making dropped for the tenth straight week. The magazine's composite on scrap prices for the week ended April 10 was at $44 a gross ton, off $1 from the previous week and the lowest point since September, 1955. The base price composite on finished steel remained at $139.71 a net ton.

Scene of Christ's Temple 'Visit Still Holy but Moslem

EDITOR'S NOTE: Nowhere on this earth is war closer than in Palestine, the very region which heard Christ's voice and felt His footsteps. Here is the first in a series of five reports on the condition at Easter, 1957, of sites Christ made holy by His presence nearly 2,000 years ago.

By WILTON WYNN

JERUSALEM, Jordan (P)—Inside the walls of Old Jerusalem is a quiet courtyard surrounding a mosque and a beautiful dome. Some people here believe the trumpet will sound on Judgment Day from a rock beneath the dome and that souls of the dead will be weighed in balance scales hanging from nearby arches.

This is holy ground. Foreigners can enter only by special permission. In some sections, shoes must be removed or heavy slippers put on.

Known to the Arabs as the "Haram es Sherif" (August Sanctuary), this enclosure covers the site of the Jewish Temple of Jesus' day. When Jesus was 12, His parents brought Him from Nazareth to visit the Temple here. While the family was on the north road back to Nazareth, Jesus remained in the Temple with the learned "doctors," astonishing them with His questions and answers. It was His first effort as a teacher of mankind and the only event of Jesus' boyhood related in the Bible.

Many changes have taken place in this area since Jesus was here. The Jewish Temple has been destroyed for nearly 2,000 years. No Jewish priests can enter the area today. But the temple site still is a sacred religious enclosure where learned "doctors" of another faith gather for endless discussion and study.

The Temple area now is a sacred Moslem shrine, the third most holy place in Islam. The contemporary "doctors" are Moslem sheikhs, some of whom come from thousands of miles away to spend their lives in religious contemplation.

These learned Moslems spread carpets or mats on the stone floor of the courtyard and debate minute theological problems for hours. Sometimes one will sit apart from the others. With his legs crossed and the Koran opened on a small wooden rack, he will chant Koranic passages by the hour, his body swaying rhythmically.

Sometimes a learned sheikh will have a small boy sitting in front of him for religious instruction. The sight of such a youngster in a full-length robe sitting at the feet of a sheikh recalls the incident when the boy Jesus talked to the doctors on the same spot.

Of the Temple which Jesus visited, there remains a sacred rock which once formed the Jewish altar. On the rock may be seen the channels down which the blood of sacrificed animals flowed when Jewish priests worshipped here.

This rock supposedly was the altar on which Abraham offered to sacrifice Isaac long before Jerusalem became the center of the Hebrew kingdom. When David established his capital here, he was ordered to build an altar on the threshing-floor of Araunah the Jebusite, which was the same rock. The altar then became the focal point of Solomon's Temple and later the Temple rebuilt by King Herod at the time of Christ.

Moslems built the "Dome of the Rock" on the ruins of the Jewish Temple in the Seventh Century. The rock beneath the dome is now considered the third most sacred site in the Moslem world, behind only Mecca and Medina. It was from this rock that Moslems say the Prophet Mohammed was taken up into Heaven on his horse.

The sacredness of this site has given rise to many legends among superstitious persons here. According to one, the trumpet signaling the Day of Judgment will be sounded from this rock and an arcade standing nearby will hold the scales in which the souls of men will be weighed.

Another legend has it that the dead gather twice a week for prayer in a pit underneath the rock.

Apart from the rock-altar, the only visible remains of the Temple of Jesus' day is the so-called "wailing wall." This stone wall rising from the slums of Old Jerusalem is probably the most sacred spot on earth for Jews. Yet no Jews have visited it since Palestine was partitioned by the Arab-Jewish war of 1948.

The armistice line left the sacred wall in Arab hands, and no Jews have crossed the line in the past nine years.

Jews believe this wall formed part of Herod's Temple, which was still new when Jesus visited it at the age of 12. The massive stone structure forms the western wall of the Moslem Haram es Sherif.

The wall is Moslem property, but before the 1948 war Jews had recognized rights here. They could stand (but not sit) before the wall and pray. They were not allowed to bring chairs or benches or build any kind of buildings here.

In the heavy stone of the wall grooves have been worn away where for centuries Jews kissed and stroked the remnant of their Temple while they waited its destruction and prayed for its restoration.

Man's Heart Stops Beating For Minute

DAYTON, Ohio (P)—Kirtley Humphrey, 43, Dayton, was presumed dead Sunday after his heart stopped beating for more than one minute. Today, he is reported in fair condition at St. Elizabeth Hospital here.

A surgeon, whose name the hospital would not disclose, massaged Humphrey's heart back to life, officials said. While he was massaging, a hospital spokesman said, the surgeon also stitched together the heart's left ventricle, laid open earlier by a stabbing.

According to hospital officials, Humphrey was brought to the emergency ward for an emergency operation. The surgeon was summoned. Before he arrived, however, Humphrey's heart stopped beating. More than a minute passed before the surgeon could begin massaging Humphrey's heart, a spokesman said. In time, the heart action resumed and Humphrey was reported in fair condition.

Police said they were holding Harold Rich, 38, of nearby New Lebanon, in connection with the stabbing. Officers said Rich and Humphrey were in a fight and that Rich suffered a stab wound in the throat. He was treated at St. Elizabeth's, they said.

Steel Output Continuing Slight Decline

CLEVELAND (P)—National steelworks operations, continuing to drop at a gradual rate, were at the lowest point last week since the recovery from last summer's steel strike.

"Steel" magazine, metalworking trade weekly, said mill operations were down to 90.5 per cent of rated capacity, a decline of two points from the previous week.

"Steel" said, however, the predicted downtrend is developing at a slower pace than had been expected.

The publication predicted that the 1957 output will be close to the 120 million tons originally estimated. "Steel" noted that much of the work for which steel is required this year has been committed, therefore steelmakers can more accurately estimate the year's operations.

Steelworks operations will continue good through the second quarter, the magazine predicted, with an upsurge in demand late in May and in June partially offsetting an expected second-quarter dip. The upsurge in demand will come, "Steel" said, to beat the anticipated steel price rise.

Prices of scrap used in steel-making dropped for the tenth straight week. The magazine's composite on scrap prices for the week ended April 10 was at $44 a gross ton, off $1 from the previous week and the lowest point since September, 1955. The base price composite on finished steel remained at $139.71 a net ton.

Members of the Saltcreek Town and Country Club won the Junior Club attendance award at the Convention. This award is a plaque which is awarded each year to the club having the greatest percentage of its membership present from the greatest distance. Seventy-five percent of the membership of the Saltcreek group attended the Convention.

During the business sessions of the Convention the delegates discussed legislation now pending in the Legislature and voted to reorganize themselves into 11 districts instead of the eight which they

Scouting gives a girl the opportunity to make new friends, creates new interests, new skills, helps the girls by giving each the opportunity to be of service to others. The girls have fun in work and play, which is found in all phases of Scouting from the youngest Brownie to the oldest Senior Scout.

Several Scout songs were offered by the girls to conclude their program.

Plain Or Fancy Hats Popular For Easter Sunday

This is the year when there is an Easter hat to suit every woman's type and whimsy, says Fred Fredericks, millinery designer.

His Spring collection includes hats big and little, flowery and tailored, plain and fancy. Says he:

"Whatever you do, be decisive. If you are the tailored type, wear a daring, dashing, big-brimmed hat with no trimming at all except a band. If you go for glamor, go all-out and wear a whole garden

The proceeds of the social are to be donated to the Lowery Lane Mission.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Binkley and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Buskirk served ice cream and coffee.

Scouting Program Given At Meeting Of Garden Club

A program on Scouting was presented at the April meeting of the Ashville Garden Club, which was held in the Methodist Church.

During the business session, the group voted to send a contribution to the American Cancer Society. The president appointed Mrs. Fannie Millar, Mrs. Russell Hedges and Mrs. Eugene Barrar to the nominating committee to prepare a slate of officers for the coming year at the May meeting.

Senior Scouts, Jean Lindsey, Dianna Nance, Elizabeth Sark, Mary Jo Bowers, Roberta Hardin, Kay Morrison, Connie Courtright, Beverly Riegel, Carol Peters and Katie Cromley with Miss Geraldine Conrad, leader, presented a varied program about Scouting, including the history.

Scouting gives a girl the opportunity to make new friends, creates new interests, new skills, helps the girls by giving each the opportunity to be of service to others. The girls have fun in work and play, which is found in all phases of Scouting from the youngest Brownie to the oldest Senior Scout.

Several Scout songs were offered by the girls to conclude their program.

Members held a discussion about plants and shrubs they enjoy in their own gardens. Several garden catalogs were viewed and a discussion followed about some of the new plants one might add to make gardening more interesting.

Mrs. A. W. Graham announced that the May meeting will be held at the Methodist Church with Mr. William Cook as guest speaker.

Plain Or Fancy Hats Popular For Easter Sunday

This is the year when there is an Easter hat to suit every woman's type and whimsy, says Fred Fredericks, millinery designer.

His Spring collection includes hats big and little, flowery and tailored, plain and fancy. Says he:

"Whatever you do, be decisive. If you are the tailored type, wear a daring, dashing, big-brimmed hat with no trimming at all except a band. If you go for glamor, go all-out and wear a whole garden

Old 'Fast Time' Argument Boils

Central Ohio May Change Clocks if Columbus Does

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Daylight Savings Time (DST) will spread from its northeastern Ohio bastion into central Ohio this year if Columbus voters approve "fast time" for the capital city in the May 7 primary.

If Columbus adopts DST, Zanesville, Newark, Circleville and other central Ohio cities are expected to follow.

Northeastern Ohio from Cleveland to Youngstown and south to below the Akron-Canton area is expected to switch to DST, as usual, the last Sunday this month (April 28).

That will leave the southern and far western parts of the state, including Cincinnati, Dayton and Toledo, definitely on standard time with Columbus and central Ohio still in doubt.

The question of whether to move the clock ahead an hour as summer approaches has stirred some hot debates in the Buckeye State.

The principal argument in favor of "fast time" is that moving the clock ahead an hour allows an extra hour at the end of the day for summertime recreation.

The principal argument against DST is simply the reverse of this. If you have an hour of extra daylight at the end of the day, opponents argue, you have an hour less at the start. It all depends on when you like your daylight.

Traditionally, farmers have been the main opponents of "fast time." Their argument is simple — city markets may go on DST but the cow still works on standard time. The result is the farmer must get up an hour earlier to start his chores and meet market times. In some cases, farm groups contend, this means getting up at 4 a.m.

There is also a growing number of exasperated citizens who favor one time for the entire state. It doesn't matter which one, they say, just so Ohioans no longer will need to consult a time zone map as well as a clock to tell the time of day. Intra-state shippers and transportation companies are in the van of this movement.

A constitutional amendment that would give the state the sole power to fix a statewide time has been introduced in the Legislature by Sen. Ed Witmer (D-Stark).

Such an amendment is needed, Witmer says, to guarantee a uniform time zone for Ohio. Under their home rule powers, cities can fix local time at either DST or Eastern Standard.

Curfew Asked On Juveniles At Drive-Ins

Ohio Solon Feels Theaters Now Face 'Serious Problem'

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Dusk-to-dawn drive-in theaters should have a midnight curfew for juveniles, says Rep. Jesse Yoder (D-Montgomery).

He claims the all-night shows are creating a "serious problem" in juvenile delinquency.

It has reached the point, the Dayton lawmaker asserts, where some patrons attend the movies to "watch the goings on in other cars."

Yoder is co-sponsor with Rep. Charles W. Whalen Jr. (R-Montgomery) of a measure to prevent juveniles from attending "theatrical performances" after midnight unless accompanied by parent or guardian.

Enforcement officials testifying in support of the proposal startled staid committee members at initial hearings on the measure.

Assistant Prosecutor Harold B. LeCrone of Montgomery County linked the drive-in theaters to an increase in illegitimate births in that area.

Backing up LeCrone was Herbert Jacobson of the prosecutor's staff. He said teen-age gangs also used the all-night drive-ins as a rendezvous for sorties that caused trouble outside.

Jacobson conceded that a curfew law might create a difficult enforcement problem. "If it means the owner must check 200 cars by flashlight, let him do it," Jacobson said. "It can be enforced," he added.

Yoder reported that many juveniles used the all-night shows as an alibi to cover activities elsewhere.

Opposing the bill was Robert Wile of the Ohio Independent Theater Owners. He asserted there was no reason to prohibit juveniles from attending late drive-ins simply because they were cheaper than motels. "Why not outlaw motels to juveniles?" he asked.

Wile estimated that Ohio had

Reporter Recalls Startling Introduction To Hollywood

By HUBBARD KEAVY
AP Staff Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—My wife's favorite Hollywood story concerns the time a prominent producer and his wife took us out one Sunday to see Will Rogers and some other movie people play polo. This was in 1929, a few weeks after we had arrived here, and we were newly married.

The uplifters' in Santa Monica didn't have a bar in those Prohibition days, so the club was living up to its name. My host and I therefore had to go to a stable to get a pre-luncheon highball. While we were away, Mrs. Producer decided to tell Mrs. K. about life in Hollywood. Her thesis was:

"You are new here, so I feel I must tell you some of the facts. Your husband, in his job of covering Hollywood, meeting beautiful women, will meet some who will be attracted to him. And he will be attracted to them. But you mustn't let it worry you, because these Hollywood affairs never last very long. You will know each time he has lost interest, because he will come home to you with a gift—a diamond bracelet, a star sapphire, perhaps a new car..."

Harriet's reply was a classic: "Not on his salary, he won't."

Well, that was part of our introduction to Hollywood. As long as we've lived here, we continue to

Thieves In Ironton Get $25,000

IRONTON (AP)—Ralph Brewer, manager of the Shaefer Supermarket here said thieves broke into the store and carted away a safe Sunday containing between $25,000 and $30,000.

He said the safe weighed between 1,800 and 2,000 pounds.

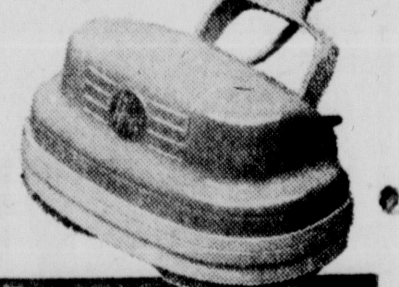

Fairbanks Jr., whom she later married.

I kept my resolve for two or three years, but curiosity overcame me after Joan became Mrs. Fairbanks. Besides, I am the tolerant and forgiving sort. I wondered what influence the manners of Pickford — the home of her father-in-law and stepmother, the place around which Hollywood society gravitated a quarter a century ago — had had on Joan.

It produced a wondrous change. I found Joan a charming hostess and a gracious lady and one of the best interview subjects I ever encountered. She not only had the desire to improve herself, but the ability. She is one of Hollywood's most generous persons today. She has given thousands of dollars to worthy causes — and always without the benefit of publicity.

Tomorrow: Hollywood homes — no huts are they.

GRIFFITHS

520 E. Main St.

DEAR MARY HAWORTH: Two and a half years ago I read in your column about the book: "Body, Mind & Sugar" (Holt publishers), by Dr. E. M. Abrahamson and A. W. Pezet.

I promptly bought it and nearly cried from joy when I read the familiar symptoms of my miserable state of utter weakness—with a correct interpretation put on my illness, for the first time.

Before I had finished reading the book I promised myself that if the corrective diet, described by the authors, would return me to normal health, I would write a letter of thanks to your column—and to the authors of the volume.

It is this promise that I am fulfilling today. I thank you from the bottom of my heart for bringing this book to my attention. During seven miserable years I was an absolutely useless person; and doctors in five different countries couldn't help me. Then nothing short of a miracle happened, when the sugarless diet changed me completely—and I am now as full of zest and energy as I could wish.

DEAR MARY HAWORTH: I would like to take this opportunity to congratulate you for the wonderful work you are doing—particularly, in calling attention to such timely books as "Body, Mind & Sugar" (Holt) by Dr. E. M. Abrahamson and A. W. Pezet; and "Let's Eat Right to Keep Fit" (Harcourt, Brace) by Adelle Davis.

The editors of a national magazine are interested in a story about my wife, who was a so-called mental patient for some months, and had been regarded as a hopeless case; and then was healed by the diet outlined in "Body, Mind & Sugar," that counteracts hyperinsulinism (blood sugar starvation).

The editors of the magazine want names and addresses of reputable doctors who are using the Abrahamson theory with success. I have furnished them with the names of four doctors; but would like to add as many as possible. I would appreciate any additional information that you may have.

DEAR C. C.: I haven't kept any file of testimonial mail on this subject, but four letters of endorsement stand out in my memory.

The earliest came from the wife of a naval officer, about four years ago. She was the first person to call my attention to Abrahamson and Pezet's book. The second was from a doctor's wife, who reported that her husband had been practising, successfully, for some 20 years, along the lines of Dr. Abrahamson's findings — namely, that many symptoms labeled neurotic or even psychotic are linked to blood sugar imbalance.

The third letter came from a doctor, who firmly lauded the book as a boon to his health; and the fourth, from a staff employee of a treatment center in the Midwest, who wrote that clinic members had become firm fans for the book—as an urgently needed supplement to their store of therapeutic knowledge. This correspondent mentioned a psychiatrist of her acquaintance, who was giving the book a wide circulation, via gift copies to clients and friends.

However, it isn't our policy to furnish names of correspondents to inquirers. But if any doctors wish to identify themselves, as using Dr. Abrahamson's diagnostic and treatment theories, successfully, I shall be glad to forward such mail to you. To all other readers, may I say—if you read Abrahamson and Pezet's book, don't prescribe for yourselves! Discuss its contents with your physician, for personalized guidance on "what to think."

Cromwell's Head Stays In Family

WOODRIDGE, England (AP)—An English churchman who kept the gruesome spiked head of Oliver Cromwell in his study is dead.

Canon Horace Ricardo Wilkinson inherited the head of The Great Protector from his father and bequeathed it to his son, steadfast to the last against giving the relic to a museum.

Cromwell, who died in 1658, was buried in Westminster Abbey. Three years later his body was exhumed and hung on a gallows. A mob tore off the head and stuck it on a pike. For 25 years it was on display in Westminster Hall. In 1787 a London pawnbroker bought it and in 1812 the head was sold to Canon Wilkinson's grandfather for about $500.

Old 'Fast Time' Argument Boils

Central Ohio May Change Clocks if Columbus Does

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Daylight Savings Time (DST) will spread from its northeastern Ohio bastion into central Ohio this year if Columbus voters approve "fast time" for the capital city in the May 7 primary.

If Columbus adopts DST, Zanesville, Newark, Circleville and other central Ohio cities are expected to follow.

Northeastern Ohio from Cleveland to Youngstown and south to below the Akron-Canton area is expected to switch to DST, as usual, the last Sunday this month (April 28.)

That will leave the southern and far western parts of the state, including Cincinnati, Dayton and Toledo, definitely on standard time with Columbus and central Ohio still in doubt.

The question of whether to move the clock ahead an hour as summer approaches has stirred some hot debates in the Buckeye State.

The principal argument in favor of "fast time" is that moving the clock ahead an hour allows an extra hour at the end of the day for summertime recreation.

The principal argument against DST is simply the reverse of this. If you have an hour of extra daylight at the end of the day, opponents argue, you have an hour less at the start. It all depends on when you like your daylight.

Traditionally, farmers have been the main opponents of "fast time." Their argument is simple — city markets may go on DST but the cow still works on standard time. The result is the farmer must get up an hour earlier to start his chores and meet market times. In some cases, farm groups contend, this means getting up at 4 a.m.

There is also a growing number of exasperated citizens who favor one time for the entire state. It doesn't matter which one, they say, just so Ohioans no longer will need to consult a time zone map as well as a clock to tell the time of day. Intra-state shippers and transportation companies are in the van of this movement.

A constitutional amendment that would give the state the sole power to fix a statewide time has been introduced in the Legislature by Sen. Ed Witmer (D-Stark).

Such an amendment is needed, Witmer says, to guarantee a uniform time zone for Ohio. Under their home rule powers, cities can fix local time at either DST or Eastern Standard.

Another bill, introduced in the House by Rep. McCaffery (D-Cuyahoga), calls for the state to adopt Eastern Standard Time throughout the year and knock out DST entirely. But attorneys say this bill would have little effect unless the Witmer amendment is adopted.

The complete list of Ohio cities adopting DST, annually compiled by the Ohio Chamber of Commerce, will not be available until after the Columbus election. Last year 105 Ohio cities went on "fast time."

It has been generally safe to assume as DST communities those northeast of a line beginning at Vermilion in Erie County, running southward to the west of Oberlin and Wellington in Lorain County, then southeast between Wooster and Massillon and between Strasburg and New Philadelphia in Tuscarawas County, then east to Powhatan Point in the southeast corner of Belmont County.

Curfew Asked On Juveniles At Drive-Ins

Ohio Solon Feels Theaters Now Face 'Serious Problem'

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Dusk-to-dawn drive-in theaters should have a midnight curfew for juveniles, says Rep. Jesse Yoder (D-Montgomery).

He claims the all-night shows are creating a "serious problem" in juvenile delinquency.

It has reached the point, the Dayton lawmaker asserts, where some patrons attend the movies to "watch the goings on in other cars."

Yoder is co-sponsor with Rep. Charles W. Whalen Jr. (R-Montgomery) of a measure to prevent juveniles from attending "theatrical performances" after midnight unless accompanied by parent or guardian.

Enforcement officials testifying in support of the proposal startled staid committee members at initial hearings on the measure.

Assistant Prosecutor Harold B. LeCrone of Montgomery County linked the drive-in theaters to an increase in illegitimate births in that area.

Backing up LeCrone was Herbert Jacobson of the prosecutor's staff. He said teen-age gangs also used the all-night drive-ins as a rendezvous for sortings that caused trouble outside.

Jacobson conceded that a curfew law might create a difficult enforcement problem. "If it means the owner must check 200 cars by flashlight, let him do it," Jacobson said. "It can be enforced."

Yoder reported that many juveniles used the all-night shows as an alibi to cover activities elsewhere.

Opposing the bill was Robert Wile of the Ohio Independent Theater Owners. He asserted there was no reason to prohibit juveniles from attending late drive-ins simply because they were cheaper than motels. "Why not outlaw motels to juveniles?" he asked.

Wile estimated that Ohio had

Reporter Recalls Startling Introduction To Hollywood

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—My wife's favorite Hollywood story concerns the time a prominent producer and his wife took us out one Sunday to see Will Rogers and some other movie people play polo. This was in 1929, a few weeks after we had arrived here, and we were newly married.

be surprised, amazed, amused and interested.

Sometimes meeting screen stars in the flesh is disillusioning. More often it is not. For, to come across successfully, these people must have unusually effective personalities. Some are good Joes naturally, some have to work hard at it.

The uplififers' in Santa Monica didn't have a bar in those Prohibition days, so the club was living up to its name. My host and I therefore had to go to a stable to get a preluceon highball. While we were away, Mrs. Producer decided to tell Mrs. K. about life in Hollywood. Her thesis was:

"You are new here, so I feel I must tell you some of the facts. Your husband, in his job of covering Hollywood, meeting beautiful women, will meet some who will be attracted to him. And he will be attracted to them. But you mustn't let it worry you, because these Hollywood affairs never last very long. You will know each time he has lost interest, because he will come home to you with a gift—a diamond bracelet, a star sapphire, perhaps a new car . . ."

Harriet's reply was a classic: "Not on his salary, he won't."

Well, that was part of our introduction to Hollywood. As long as we've lived here, we continue to Still new here, I came home one day and said in disgust that "that Crawford is a dame I never care to see again." At luncheon at the studio that day, Joan joined a little group of us and ordered a salad. It consisted of chopped vegetables nicely laid on large lettuce leaves. She didn't want the lettuce, so she picked them out of the salad and tossed them over her shoulder onto a tray on a table behind her. I admired her marksmanship, but not her manners. But that wasn't all. A phone was brought to the table and she carried on a silly conversation in pig-Latin with her fiancé, Doug

DEAR MARY HAWORTH: Two and a half years ago I read in your column about the book: "Body, Mind & Sugar" (Holt publishers), by Dr. E. M. Abrahamson and A. W. Pezet.

I promptly bought it and nearly cried from joy when I read the familiar symptoms of my miserable state of utter weakness—with a correct interpretation put on my illness, for the first time.

Before I had finished reading the book I promised myself that if the corrective diet, described by the authors, would return me to normal health, I would write a letter of thanks to your column—and to the authors of the volume.

It is this promise that I am fulfilling today. I thank you from the bottom of my heart for bringing this book to my attention. During seven miserable years I was an absolutely useless person; and doctors in five different countries couldn't help me. Then nothing short of a miracle happened, when the sugarless diet change me completely—and I am now as full of zest and energy as I could wish.

practising, successfully, for some 20 years, along the lines of Dr. Abrahamson's findings — namely, that many symptoms labeled neurotic or even psychotic are linked to blood sugar imbalance.

The third letter came from a doctor, who firmly lauded the book as a boon to his health; and the fourth, from a staff employee of a treatment center in the Midwest, who wrote that clinic members had become firm fans for the book—as an urgently needed supplement to their store of therapeutic knowledge. This correspondent mentioned a psychiatrist of her acquaintance, who was giving the book a wide circulation, via gift copies to clients and friends.

However, it isn't our policy to furnish names of correspondents to inquirers. But if any doctors wish to identify themselves, as using Dr. Abrahamson's diagnostic and treatment theories, successfully, I shall be glad to forward such mail to you. To all other readers, may I say—if you read Abrahamson and Pezet's book, don't prescribe for yourselves! Discuss its contents with your physician, for personalized guidance on "what to think."

DEAR MARY HAWORTH: I would like to take this opportunity to congratulate you for the wonderful work you are doing—particularly, in calling attention to such timely books as "Body, Mind & Sugar" (Holt) by Dr. E. M. Abrahamson and A. W. Pezet; and "Let's Eat Right to Keep Fit" (Harcourt, Brace) by Adelle Davis.

The editors of a national magazine are interested in a story about my wife, who was a so-called mental patient for some months, and had been regarded as a hopeless case; and then was healed by the diet outlined in "Body, Mind & Sugar," that counteracts hyperinsulinism (blood sugar starvation).

The editors of the magazine want names and addresses of reputable doctors who are using the Abrahamson theory with success. I have furnished them with the names of four doctors; but would like to add as many as possible. I would appreciate any additional information that you may have.

DEAR C. C.: I haven't kept any file of testimonial mail on this subject, but four letters of endorsement stand out in my memory.

The earliest came from the wife of a naval officer, about four years ago. She was the first person to call my attention to Abrahamson and Pezet's book. The second was from a doctor's wife, who reported that her husband had been

WOODBRIDGE, England (AP)—An English churchman who kept the gruesome spiked head of Oliver Cromwell in his study is dead.

Canon Horacio Ricardo Wilkinson inherited the head of The Great Protector from his father and bequeathed it to his son, steadfast to the last against giving the relic to a museum.

Cromwell, who died in 1658, was buried in Westminster Abbey. Three years later his body was exhumed and hung on a gallows. A mob tore off the head and stuck it on a pike. For 25 years it was on display in Westminster Hall. In 1787 a London pawnbroker bought it and in 1812 the head was sold to Canon Wilkinson's grandfather for about $500.

Orioles, Senators Set To Open '57 Baseball Season

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Baltimore and Washington, neither a serious challenger for the American League pennant, had the stage all to themselves as the 1957 major league baseball season got under way today with the traditional solo opener in the nation's capital.

A pair of run-of-the-mill right-handers, Hector Brown (9-7) of the Orioles and Bob Chakales (4-4) of the Senators, were poised for the inaugural but not before a much more noted pitcher, President Dwight D. Eisenhower, threw out the first ball.

The majors roll into high gear Tuesday with all teams active as the National League starts its 82nd season and the American its 57th.

The New York Yankees remain a prohibitive favorite to win their third straight pennant and eighth in nine years under Manager Casey Stengel. The odds-makers have made them 2-5 favorites, shortest on record.

All observers expect another tight race in the National League. Milwaukee is a slight favorite over Brooklyn and Cincinnati. This trio fought it right down to the wire last year with the Dodgers edging out the Braves by one game and the Redlegs by two.

The experts don't give the other teams much of a chance unless the Yankees should run into an endless run of injuries or a "dark horse" team like the St. Louis Cardinals should get hot.

The three clubs expected to provide the sternest opposition to the Yankees will be under the leadership of new managers. Kerby Farrell, after a 10-year apprenticeship in the minor leagues, has replaced Al Lopez in Cleveland. Lopez, who never finished lower than second in six years with the Indians, has moved over to Chicago. Jack Tighe, a hustling, fiery type, has succeeded mild-mannered Bucky Harris at Detroit, moving up from his job as Tiger coach.

The other new manager is Bob Scheffing, who has inherited Stan Hack's last-place problems with the Chicago Cubs.

Old familiar faces like Bob Feller and Al Rosen are gone to be replaced by eager newcomers like Tony Kubek of the Yankees, Rodgers Maris of the Indians, Jim Landis of the White Sox, Brooks Robinson and Carl Povich of the Orioles, Haywood Sullivan of the Red Sox, Bobby Gene Smith of the Cardinals, Andre Rodgers of the Giants, Bob Bowman and John Kennedy of the Phillies, Casey Wyse of the Cubs and some dozen others.

Seven of the 16 pitchers who had opening day assignments last year were slated to be back on the mound today and Tuesday. The group is headed by Robin Roberts, who will be handling his eighth straight inaugural job when the Phillies open at home against the Dodgers. Roberts will be opposed by 27-game winner Don Newcombe, whom he defeated 8-6 last year in the 1956 opener.

The same pitching rivals who faced each other last year also are due in the Giants - Pirates game at Pittsburgh. Johnny Antonelli (20-13), who will be opposed by Bob Friend (17-17), Pittsburgh's brilliant right-hander, who dropped a 4-3 decision to the Giants' ace southpaw last year.

Milwaukee will send veteran southpaw Warren Spahn (20-11) against Bob Rush (13-10) in Chicago.

The Cardinals-Reds game in Cincinnati will feature two right-handers, Herman Wehmeier (12-11) will start for St. Louis. He will be opposed by Johnny Klippstein (12-11).

In the American League, the opening day repeaters will be Billy Pierce (20-9) of Chicago and Frank Lary (21-13) of Detroit. Manager Farrell selected Herb Score (20-9) over Bob Lemon to oppose Pierce.

Lary, who lost a 2-1 decision to Alex Kellner last year, faces the Athletics again but this time he will be opposed by Tom Morgan (6-7), acquired by Kansas City from the Yankees last February.

Whitey Ford (19-6) has been entrusted by the Yankees to get them off on the right foot in defense of their championship. Facing him will be Chuck Stobbs (15-15), Washington's veteran southpaw who defeated the world champions three times last year.

Tom Brewer (19-9) will pitch for the Boston Red Sox Tuesday against Baltimore, which will use Bill Wight (9-12).

Canuck Cops Top Money At Greensboro

GREENSBORO, N. C. (AP) — Stan Leonard of Canada has found that for him, at least, life on the links does begin at 40.

He pocketed $2,000 first money in the $15,000 Greater Greensboro Open Golf Tournament Sunday with a 69 finish for a 276 to win his first American tournament in three years of circuit play.

A professional for 17 years, the balding Leonard stayed pretty close to home most of that time. He won the Canadian PGA title five times and had a good club job. The life of a traveling circuit player held little appeal for him.

But several leading American pros told him he was "missing the boat" by not taking his chances in the United States where the big money is. So he took his first fling at a tournament schedule two years back.

Although he never won until Sunday, he was often well up in the money.

Leonard won about $5,700 in eight U. S. starts this year before coming here. Three times in the Masters at Augusta, Ga., he has finished in the top 25. He pocketed about $14,000 last year.

Leonard, who plays from LaChute, Canada, had a three-stroke edge over Mike Souchak, Grossinger's, N. Y., who played with him.

Ashville Manager Schedules Tryouts

Virgil Walden, manager, has requested all Ashville Kid Baseballers interested in trying out for Ashville Babe Ruth and Acme League teams to meet at the community park shelter house Saturday at 2 p. m.

The Babe Ruth League team, scheduled to participate in a Pick-away County League this year, will be composed of players 13-15 years old.

The Acme League team, made up of 15½-17½ year-old boys, will play in a loop consisting of squads from Circleville, Chillicothe, Columbus and possibly teams from several other areas.

Milwaukee Team Now Leading WIBC

DAYTON (AP)—Mamie's Grotto of Milwaukee holds the lead in the Woman's International Bowling Congress tournament here.

The team rolled 2,585 Sunday. Angi's George Jordan Shirts of Erie, Pa., stood second with 2,578, while Old Crown Beer of Fort Wayne, Ind., was third with 2,575. Marge Baginski and Helen Herberich of Chicago lead in doubles competition with 1,140.

Audrey Condry of Wooster tops the singles event with 595.

Errors Prove Costly In Tigers' Double Loss To Athens Squad

Circleville High's baseball squad ran into trouble Saturday when they traveled to Athens, losing both ends of a doubleheader 8 to 4 and 2 to 0.

Fielding miscues played a big part in both Tiger losses, especially in the first contest when the locals committed five bobbles. An infield error in the second game also proved costly.

The fielding exhibition was just the reverse of what it was in the first two games of the season which the Tigers won over Chillicothe and Hillsboro. The CHS crew also played both tests without the services of veteran 2nd baseman Dick Banks who was excused to attend College Day at Ohio Wesleyan University in Delaware.

Circleville started out with a bang in the opening game, scoring four runs in the first inning. However, the CHS swatters were unable to score another tally the rest of the day.

THE TIGERS' two sophomore pitchers, Don Rowland and Joe Adkins, both had good control for such a cold day. Rowland walked only two during the first game and Adkins gave up one base on balls during the second contest, which was cut short to five innings because of cold weather.

Adkins, making his first start for Circleville, had Athens shut out for three innings in the second game. But he got himself in hot water by walking the leadoff batter in the bottom of the fourth and then two hits and an infield error let in the two winning runs.

In the first game, Circleville got off to a good start. Cal Ellis drew a base on balls after one was out and Mike Hosler followed with a single to center.

Ray Phifer kept things going by reaching first on an error to load the bases. Don Rowland then singled sharply to center to drive in two runs and Roger Magill lined another single to left to drive in two more. As it turned out, those were the only runs the Tigers scored all day.

This week, the Circleville diamond men play four more games. On Tuesday, they host Wilmington and on Thursday they travel to Washington C. H. Both will be South Central Ohio League games.

On Saturday, the Tigers are home for a doubleheader with Logan.

Mike Hosler will be the probable starter against Wilmington Tuesday, with Don Rowland the likely hurler against Washington C. H. The Tigers won their only league start to date, 3-1 over Hillsboro.

Rookies Aid Celtics In Copping Title

BOSTON (AP)—Boston savored its first world basketball championship today because of rookies

Tom Heinsohn and Bill Russell and a pair of slick sophomores. There are no better players in the National Basketball Assn., than men like Bob Cousy and Bill Sharman.

But when the chips were down the Celtics' younger set came through to nail down the team's first playoff championship in the 11 year history of the loop.

In the most exciting title series to date, Boston nipped St. Louis 125-123 in double overtime Saturday in the decisive seventh game.

Frank Ramsey, on leave from the Army, scored on a 20-foot one-handed jump shot with 72 seconds remaining in the second overtime and Jim Loscutoff put on the final touches with a free throw in the last second.

In the series, Russell got 160 rebounds and Heinsohn tallied 168 points to lead Boston in those departments.

Hart Is Favored To Top Stevenson

NEW YORK (AP)—Sugar Hart, upset by Boston's Walt Byars in his last start, takes on Willie (Pineapples) Stevenson, another rugged Bostonian, in a 10-round bout here tonight.

The lanky, hard-hitting Hart was a 5-1 favorite when he had his winning streak of 12 snapped by Byars at Madison Square Garden last March 8. The 21-year-old Philadelphia welterweight is a 3-1 choice over Stevenson.

Pineapples is no pushover. The 23-year-old New Englander holds a win over Byars, although he lost two later to Walt, and has won 12 of his last 13. He has a 27-5 record.

Orioles, Senators Set To Open '57 Baseball Season

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Baltimore and Washington, neither a serious challenger for the American League pennant, had the stage all to themselves as the 1957 major league baseball season got under way today with the traditional solo opener in the nation's capital.

A pair of run-of-the-mill right-handers, Hector Brown (9-7) of the Orioles and Bob Chakales (4-4) of the Senators, were poised for the inaugural but not before a much more noted pitcher, President Dwight D. Eisenhower, threw out the first ball.

The majors roll into high gear Tuesday with all teams active as the National League starts its 82nd season and the American its 57th.

The New York Yankees remain a prohibitive favorite to win their third straight pennant and eighth in nine years under Manager Casey Stengel. The odds-makers have made them 2-5 favorites, shortest on record.

All observers expect another tight race in the National League. Milwaukee is a slight favorite over Brooklyn and Cincinnati. This trio fought it right down to the wire last year with the Dodgers edging out the Braves by one game and the Redlegs by two.

The experts don't give the other

Canuck Cops Top Money At Greensboro

GREENSBORO, N. C. (AP)—Stan Leonard of Canada has found that for him, at least, life on the links does begin at 40.

He pocketed $2,000 first money in the $15,000 Greater Greensboro Open Golf Tournament Sunday with a 69 finish for a 276 to win his first American tournament in three years of circuit play.

A professional for 17 years, the balding Leonard stayed pretty close to home most of that time. He won the Canadian PGA title five times and had a good club job. The life of a traveling circuit player held little appeal for him.

But several leading American pros told him he was "missing the boat" by not taking his chances in the United States where the big money is. So he took his first fling at a tournament schedule two years back.

Although he never won until Sunday, he was often well up in the money.

Leonard won about $3,700 in eight U. S. starts this year before coming here. Three times in the Masters at Augusta, Ga., he has finished in the top 25. He pocketed about $14,000 last year.

Leonard, who plays from LaChute, Canada, had a three-stroke edge over Mike Souchak, Grossinger's, N. Y., who played with him.

Ashville Manager Schedules Tryouts

Virgil Walden, manager, has requested all Ashville Kid Baseballers interested in trying out for Ashville Babe Ruth and Acme League teams to meet at the community park shelter house Saturday at 2 p. m.

The Babe Ruth League team, scheduled to participate in a Pick-away County League this year, will be composed of players 13-15 years old.

The Acme League team, made up of 15½-17½ year-old boys, will play in a loop consisting of squads from Circleville, Chillicothe, Columbus and possibly teams from several other areas.

Milwaukee Team Now Leading WIBC

DAYTON (AP)—Mamie's Grotto of Milwaukee holds the lead in the Woman's International Bowling Congress tournament here.

The team rolled 2,585 Sunday. Angi's George Jordan Shirts of Erie, Pa., stood second with 2,578, while Old Crown Beer of Fort Wayne, Ind., was third with 2,575.

Marge Baginski and Helen Herbrick of Chicago lead in doubles competition with 1,140.

Audrey Condry of Wooster tops the singles event with 595.

Lary, who lost a 2-1 decision to Alex Kellner last year, faces the Athletics again but this time he will be opposed by Tom Morgan (6-7), acquired by Kansas City from the Yankees last February.

Whitey Ford (19-6) has been entrusted by the Yankees to get them off on the right foot in defense of their championship. Facing him will be Chuck Stobbs (13-15), Washington's veteran southpaw who defeated the world champions three times last year.

Tom Brewer (19-9) will pitch for the Boston Red Sox Tuesday against Baltimore, which will use Bill Wight (9-12).

Errors Prove Costly In Tigers' Double Loss To Athens Squad

Circleville High's baseball squad ran into trouble Saturday when they traveled to Athens, losing both ends of a doubleheader 8 to 4 and 2 to 0.

Fielding miscues played a big part in both Tiger losses, especially in the first contest when the locals committed five bobbles. An infield error in the second game also proved costly.

The fielding exhibition was just the reverse of what it was in the first two games of the season which the Tigers won over Chillicothe and Hillsboro. The CHS crew also played both tests without the services of veteran 2nd baseman Dick Banks who was excused to attend College Day at Ohio Wesleyan University in Delaware.

Circleville started out with a bang in the opening game, scoring four runs in the first inning. However, the CHS swatters were unable to score another tally the rest of the day.

THE TIGERS' two sophomore pitchers, Don Rowland and Joe Adkins, both had good control for such a cold day. Rowland walked only two during the first game and Adkins gave up one base on balls during the second contest, which was cut short to five innings because of cold weather.

Adkins, making his first start for Circleville, had Athens shut out for three innings in the second game. But he got himself in hot water by walking the leadoff batter in the bottom of the fourth and then two hits and an infield error let in the two winning runs.

In the first game, Circleville got off to a good start. Cal Ellis drew a base on balls after one was out and Mike Hosler followed with a single to center.

Ray Phifer kept things going by reaching first on an error to load the bases. Don Rowland then singled sharply to center to drive in two runs and Roger Magill lined another single to left to drive in two more. As it turned out, those were the only runs the Tigers scored all day.

This week, the Circleville diamond men play four more games. On Tuesday, they host Wilmington and on Thursday they travel to Washington C. H. Both will be South Central Ohio League games.

On Saturday, the Tigers are home for a doubleheader with Logan.

Mike Hosler will be the probable starter against Wilmington Tuesday, with Don Rowland the likely hurler against Washington C. H. The Tigers won their only league start to date, 3-1 over Hillsboro.

Tom Heinsohn and Bill Russell

There are no better players in the National Basketball Assn., than men like Bob Cousy and Bill Sharman.

But when the chips were down the Celtics' younger set came through to nail down the team's first playoff championship in the 11 year history of the loop.

In the most exciting title series to date, Boston nipped St. Louis 125-123 in double overtime Saturday in the decisive seventh game.

Heinsohn scored 37 points, hitting on 17 of 33 field goal tries, and had 23 rebounds. Russell grabbed 32 rebounds and tallied 19 points.

Frank Ramsey, on leave from the Army, scored on a 20-foot one-handed jump shot with 72 seconds remaining in the second overtime and Jim Loscutoff put on the final touches with a free throw in the last second.

In the series, Russell got 160 rebounds and Heinsohn tallied 168 points to lead Boston in those departments.

Circleville Kid Baseball Program Making Progress For Season

Another Kid baseball organization meeting held yesterday in Circleville High School was well-attended by team managers according to Charles Waple, Ted Lewis Park recreational director.

Waple and the managers conducted a review of meetings already held and discussed some of the rules which will apply this season.

Outside of adding two more managers for the Mosquito League and obtaining two more teams for the County Babe Ruth League, Waple remarked that his program is going along on schedule.

A team from Pickaway Township was added to the Mosquito League yesterday, making a total of eight squads for that loop. The new team is managed by Bob Arledge.

Waple announced that tryouts will be held this week and next as follows: 10-12 year-old, Thursday at 4 p. m.; 13-15 year-old, Thursday at 5:30 p. m.; 8-9 year-old, April 24 at 4 p. m.

Waple urged all managers to be present for the tryouts to lend assistance in making selections. If all goes well, games are scheduled to start June 3, the recreational director said.

Some of the playing rules discussed yesterday were: if a player steps into the batter's box without a head protector, he will be called out; a team must field nine men to start a game; a coach may not use players other than those on his team roster; a player may re-enter a game if a teammate is injured and there are no other players on the bench; a team may finish a game with less than nine players.

Managers attending the meeting yesterday were as follows: Kenneth Crawford, Terry Barthelme, Lee Smith, Virgil Walden, Bob Arledge, Richard Bumgardner, Ronnie Easter, Jack Hennis, Bert Marburger and Edie Dumm.

Persons desiring to enter teams in the Pickaway County Babe Ruth League and those interested in volunteering for a managers job are asked to write Waple at 915 S. Clinton St. or phone 1044-X on week-ends.

The next organizational meeting is scheduled for May 5 at 2 p. m. in Circleville High School.

Grapefruit Crown Goes To Pirates

NEW YORK (AP)—Meet the champions—the Pittsburgh Pirates, no less.

The young, brave and hopeful Buccos finished the exhibition season Sunday with a 20-10 record, although they lost their finale, 4-3, to Detroit.

The Pirates had a .667 average, just a half-game ahead of the Milwaukee Braves. The standings were figured on all games, against both major league and minor league competition.

In the American League, the Cleveland Indians came out on top with a 19-14 record good for .576. The New York Yankees were second with an 18-16 mark.

29 Teams, 500 Entries Set For Annual Ohio Relays

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—A record field of 29 teams and more than 500 entries have been booked for the 15th Annual Ohio Relays at Ohio State University Saturday.

The relays, which bring some of the nation's top track and field talent to Columbus, this year have attracted Greg Bell of Indiana, Olympic broad jump champion, and Ira Murchison of Western Michigan, who shares the world record in the 100-meter dash.

Bell, generally regarded as the most serious threat to Jesse Owens' broad jump record since the Ohio State great leaped 26 feet, 8 1/4 inches 22 years ago, has come within 1 1/4 inches of Owens' formidable record.

Bell heads an otherwise average field of broad jumpers.

Murchison, who has run the 100 meters in 10.1 seconds, will have stiffer competition from an array of Big Ten dash men, including Bell, in the 100-yard dash.

Ohio State's Olympic Champion Glenn Davis will compete in three relay races.

Don Laz, the Champaign, Ill., architect who is one of the few men to clear 15 feet in the pole vault, will also be on hand for the relays.

Illinois' Al Urbankas, who won the Big Ten indoor high jump championship at Ohio State this winter, will probably have to approach the 6 foot, 8 inch mark he reached then to take the relays title from several others who have reached 6 feet 6 inches and higher.

Willie Mays of Indiana, Big Ten champ in the 120-yard high hurdles, will be on hand to try for another title. So will several other Big Ten winners, including Len Depalma of Northwestern in the 1,000-yard run and Wisconsin half-miler Austin Cotton, who is entered in the 600-yard run.

Dave Lean of Michigan State, the Australian Olympic star, who was disqualified in the Big Ten indoor meet, will push Cotton for the 600-meter title.

Phil Coleman of the Chicago Track Club, Olympic steeplechaser, has a 4:05 mile to his credit and appears to be the strongest contender in the relays mile.

He's also entered in the 1,000-meter run and could win that one as well.

In addition to the individual events, the relays will have distance and sprint medleys, and 440-yard, 880-yard mile and two-mile relays and a 440-yard shuttle hurdle relay.

Murchison will head a Western Michigan team favored in the 440-yard relay. Most Big Ten schools have teams entered in the relay events.

The relays will draw entries from the Western Conference schools plus Kentucky, Eastern and Western Michigan, Pittsburgh, Wayne, Butler, Several athletic clubs and a few unattached competitors.

Some of the smaller Ohio colleges who will send representatives include Miami, Cincinnati, Youngstown, Baldwin - Wallace, Ohio Wesleyan, Ohio University, Denison, Bowling Green, Kent State, and Western Reserve.

Cleveland Wins Table Tennis Title

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (AP)—Second-seeded Bernard Buikert of Cleveland upset favored Erwin Klein of Los Angeles Sunday to win his first national men's singles title in the finals of the 27th annual U. S. Table Tennis Tournament.

Buikert lost only one game as he tripped the defending champion, 21-17, 21-11, 21-17.

The favorite survived in the women's singles as defending champion Leah Neuberger of New

Herb Score To Open For Cleveland '9'

CLEVELAND (AP)—Herb Score, 23-year-old southpaw, will be on the pitcher's mound for the Cleveland Indians when they meet the Chicago White Sox here Tuesday to launch their 1957 campaign.

It will be the first opening-day assignment for Score, who won 20 and lost 9 last year. He will be facing another 20-game southpaw, Billy Pierce of the White Sox.

Pierce was the winner in the opener at Chicago last year, when the White Sox defeated Cleveland 2-1. Bob Lemon pitched for Cleveland.

Score was nominated by manager Kerby Farrell after the Indians edged the Milwaukee Braves 5-4 in an exhibition game at Milwaukee Sunday.

Farrell said he picked Score because he was in better condition than Lemon or Early Wynn.

Wynn, recently recovered from a hip injury, was the winning pitcher against the Braves. He gave up seven hits and all four Milwaukee runs in five innings.

Lemon was tentatively scheduled to pitch the opener until he was called to the West Coast last week because of the death of a sister.

Ohioan Still Alive In Masters Test

FORT WORTH (AP)—Defending champion Dick Hoover of Akron won his first match of the 1957 ABC Masters Tournament Sunday night when he whipped Joe Bolek of Chicago 850 to 710 in their four-game encounter.

The Masters Tournament is a distinct event and not a part of the American Bowling Congress championships which are also being rolled here. The Masters is a double-elimination singles affair.

Jack Aydelotte of Minneapolis, Minn., put on the evening's best scoring performance when he clubbed out a 5-game total of 919 to top Buzz Fazio's 863.

Ouchy Ankle Benches Burgess

CINCINNATI (AP)—Catcher Smoky Burgess, who wrenched his ankle ten days ago, is almost sure to miss the first week of the baseball season with Cincinnati.

At batting practice Sunday, he said he can't do much hitting because of pain. "I can't put any weight on it," he said.

But the Redlegs had power enough without him Sunday to subdue Louisville's Colonels, 4-3 in the Reds' final exhibition game, played in the Kentucky city.

York warded off second-seeded Mildred Shahan of Chicago, to win her eighth title. The scores were 21-10, 21-17, 21-18.

Circleville Kid Baseball Program Making Progress For Season

Another Kid baseball organization meeting held yesterday in Circleville High School was well-attended by team managers according to Charles Waple, Ted Lewis Park recreational director.

Waple and the managers conducted a review of meetings already held and discussed some of the rules which will apply this season.

Outside of adding two more managers for the Mosquito League and obtaining two more teams for the County Babe Ruth League, Waple remarked that his program is going along on schedule.

A team from Pickaway Township was added to the Mosquito League yesterday, making a total of eight teams for that loop. The new team is managed by Bob Arledge.

Waple announced that tryouts will be held this week and next as follows: 10-12 year-old, Thursday at 4 p. m.; 13-15 year-old, Thursday at 5:30 p. m.; 8-9 year-old, April 24 at 4 p. m.

Waple urged all managers to be present for the tryouts to lend assistance in making selections. If all goes well, games are scheduled to start June 3, the recreational director said.

Some of the playing rules discussed yesterday were: if a player steps into the batter's box without a head protector, he will be called out; a team must field nine men to start a game; a coach may not use players other than those on his team roster; a player may re-enter a game if a teammate is injured and there are no other players on the bench; a team may finish a game with less than nine players.

Managers attending the meeting yesterday were as follows: Kenneth Crawford, Terry Barthelmas, Lee Smith, Virgil Walden, Bob Arledge, Richard Bumgardner, Ronnie Easter, Jack Hennis, Bert Marburger and Eddie Dumm.

Persons desiring to enter teams in the Pickaway County Babe Ruth League and those interested in volunteering for a managers job are asked to write Waple at 915 S. Clinton St. or phone 1044-X on week-ends.

The next organizational meeting is scheduled for May 5 at 2 p. m. in Circleville High School.

Grapefruit Crown Goes To Pirates

NEW YORK (AP)—Meet the champions—the Pittsburgh Pirates, no less.

The young, brave and hopeful Buccos finished the exhibition season Sunday with a 20-10 record, although they lost their finale, 4-3, to Detroit.

The Pirates had a .667 average, just a half game ahead of the Milwaukee Braves. The standings were figured on all games, against both major league and minor league competition.

In the American League, the Cleveland Indians came out on top with a 19-14 record good for .576. The New York Yankees were second with an 18-16 mark.

29 Teams, 500 Entries Set For Annual Ohio Relays

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—A record field of 29 teams and more than 500 entries have been booked for the 15th Annual Ohio Relays at Ohio State University Saturday.

The relays, which bring some of the nation's top track and field talent to Columbus, this year have attracted Greg Bell of Indiana, Olympic broad jump champion, and Ira Murchison of Western Michigan, who shares the world record in the 100-meter dash.

Bell, generally regarded as the most serious threat to Jesse Owens' broad jump record since the Ohio State great leaped 26 feet, 8 1/2 inches 22 years ago, has come within 1 1/4 inches of Owens' formidable record.

Bell heads an otherwise average field of broad jumpers.

Murchison, who has run the 100 meters in 10.1 seconds, will have stiffer competition from an array of Big Ten dash men, including Bell, in the 100-yard dash.

Ohio State's Olympic Champion Glenn Davis will compete in three relay races.

Don Laz, the Champaign, Ill., architect who is one of the few men to clear 15 feet in the pole vault, will also be on hand for the relays.

Illinois' Al Urbankas, who won the Big Ten indoor high jump championship at Ohio State this winter, will probably have to approach the 6 foot, 8 inch mark he reached then to take the relays title from several others who have reached 6 feet 6 inches and higher.

Willie Mays of Indiana, Big Ten champ in the 120-yard high hurdles, will be on hand to try for another title. So will several other Big Ten winners, including Len Depalma of Northwestern in the 1,000-yard run and Wisconsin half-miler Austin Cotton, who is entered in the 600-yard run.

Dave Lean of Michigan State, the Australian Olympic star, who was disqualified in the Big Ten indoor meet, will push Cotton for the 600 meter title.

Phil Coleman of the Chicago Track Club, Olympic steeplechaser, has a 4:05 mile to his credit and appears to be the strongest contender in the relays mile.

He's also entered in the 1,000-meter run and could win that one as well.

In addition to the individual events, the relays will have distance and sprint medleys, and 440-yard, 880-yard mile and two-mile relays and a 440-yard shuttle hurdle relay.

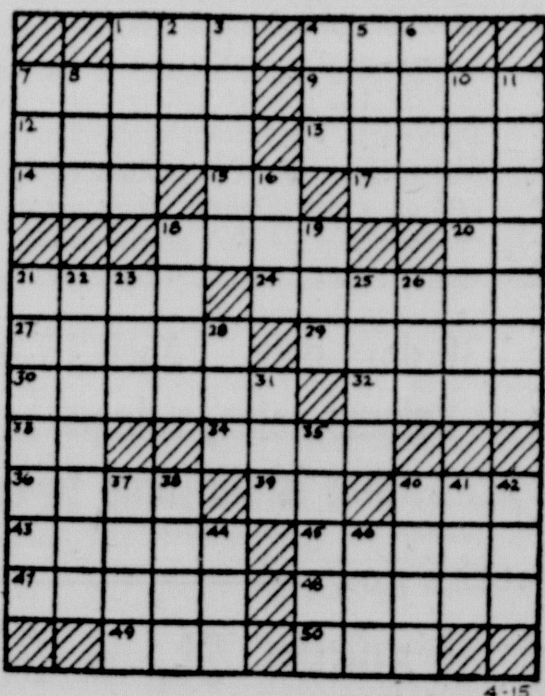

Murchison will head a Western Michigan team favored in the 440-yard relay. Most Big Ten schools have teams entered in the relay events.

The relays will draw entries from the Western Conference schools plus Kentucky, Eastern and Western Michigan, Pittsburgh, Wayne, Butler, several athletic clubs and a few unattached competitors.

Some of the smaller Ohio colleges who will send representatives include Miami, Cincinnati, Youngstown, Baldwin - Wallace, Ohio Wesleyan, Ohio University, Denison, Bowling Green, Kent State, and Western Reserve.

Herb Score To Open For Cleveland '9'

CLEVELAND (AP)—Herb Score, 23-year-old southpaw, will be on the pitcher's mound for the Cleveland Indians when they meet the Chicago White Sox here Tuesday to launch their 1957 campaign.

It will be the first opening-day assignment for Score, who won 20 and lost 9 last year. He will be facing another 20-game southpaw, Billy Pierce of the White Sox.

Pierce was the winner in the opener at Chicago last year, when the White Sox defeated Cleveland 2-1. Bob Lemon pitched for Cleveland.

Score was nominated by manager Kerby Farrell after the Indians edged the Milwaukee Braves 5-4 in an exhibition game at Milwaukee Sunday.

Farrell said he picked Score because he was in better condition than Lemon or Early Wynn.

Wynn, recently recovered from a hip injury, was the winning pitcher against the Braves. He gave up seven hits and all four Milwaukee runs in five innings.

Lemon was tentatively scheduled to pitch the opener until he was called to the West Coast last week because of the death of a sister.

Ohioan Still Alive In Masters Test

FORT WORTH (AP)—Defending champion Dick Hoover of Akron won his first match of the 1957 ABC Masters Tournament Sunday night when he whipped Joe Bolek of Chicago 850 to 710 in their four-game encounter.

The Masters Tournament is a distinct event and not a part of the American Bowling Congress championships which are also being rolled here. The Masters is a double-elimination singles affair.

Jack Aydelotte of Minneapolis, Minn., put on the evening's best scoring performance when he clubbed out a 5-game total of 919 to top Buzz Fazio's 863.

Ouchy Ankle Benches Burgess

CINCINNATI (AP)—Catcher Smoky Burgess, who wrenched his ankle ten days ago, is almost sure to miss the first week of the baseball season with Cincinnati.

At batting practice Sunday, he said he can't do much hitting because of pain. "I can't put any weight on it," he said.

But the Redlegs had power enough without him Sunday to subdue Louisville's Colonels, 4-3 in the Reds' final exhibition game, played in the Kentucky city.

York warded off second seeded Mildred Shabian of Chicago, to win her eighth title. The scores were 21-10, 21-17, 21-18.

Cleveland Wins Table Tennis Title

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (AP)—Second seeded Bernard Buick of Cleveland upset favored Erwin Klein of Los Angeles Sunday to win his first national men's singles title in the finals of the 27th annual U. S. Table Tennis Tournament.

Buick lost only one game as he tripped the defending champion, 21-17, 21-21, 21-17.

The favorite survived in the women's singles as defending champion Leah Neuberger of New

IT'S the LAW

Following is another in a series of articles presented as a public service by the Pickaway County Bar Association. These articles deal only with hypothetical cases and are not intended to solve individual problems that need specific advice. Names, when used, are always fictitious.

Jury Service Reveals Citizen-ship In Action

A jury in action is a universal favorite of the movie script writers. They describe it in the typical language of their trade:

Place: Court House, Ohio town.

Time: Late afternoon.

Scene: Both sides have just completed their final arguments to the jury in an emotion-packed first degree murder trial. The judge has charged the jury concerning the law. It is now the duty of the jury to decide the facts and render a verdict.

A stranger, observing this drama might well speculate on at least three questions: (1) Who are these persons called jurors? (2) How did they get there? (3) Is this truly a good system? That stranger might also be surprised to know that the answers to his questions are tightly woven into the fabric of the American legal system.

In the first place, jurors are not specialists. They are citizens in action. They represent a cross section of people.

IN A TYPICAL jury box, a salesman might be sitting next to a retired office manager, an engineer beside a young matron, a working wife behind a mature executive's widow with a fashionable address. Individually they are not likely to be especially impressive. But, collectively, they combine an unexpected variety of experience and knowledge. Their great strength is in that grossly undervalued quality—common sense.

Jurors are selected under a definite system provided by law. Under the Revised Code of Ohio, a jury is chosen from a list of voters at the last general election, prepared and supplied to the court by the County Board of Elections. The names are then selected and placed in the jury wheel under a key number system. (For example, every 25th name may be picked.)

If a person's name is then drawn from the wheel, later, a summons for jury service may be forthcoming. That, of course, means an individual must appear at a designated court room on a given day for jury service. Despite the definiteness of the summons, a person still may be excused and probably will be— if he has a valid reason for not being available for service.

The jury system is guaranteed by both the United States and the Ohio Constitution. Thus, its maintenance or rejection does not depend upon the views of any government officials or upon public opinion.

It has some critics as well as many supporters. Among the former are some members of the legal profession. However, the prevailing viewpoint is still favorable as it was when Alexander Hamilton, one of our constitutional forefathers, said:

"FOR MY PART, the more the operation of the institution has fallen under my observation, the more reason I have discovered for holding it in high estimation; and, it would be altogether superfluous to examine to what extent it deserves to be esteemed useful or essential to a representative republic, or how much more merit it may be entitled to, as a defense against the oppressions of an hereditary monarch, than as a barrier to the tyranny of popular magistrates in a popular government."

Thus, jurors when they decide a case are doing more than appearing in a dramatic setting, they are participating in a practical demonstration of citizenship in action.

Your Election Laws ...

By Ted W. Brown
Secretary of State of Ohio

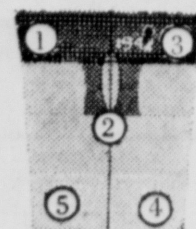

Ohio is one of the thirty-seven states which permits civilian absent voting. Ohio permits voters who will be unavoidably absent from their counties and more than ten miles from their voting precincts on May 7, Primary Election Day, to vote an Absent Voter's Ballot. This may be done either in person at the office of the county Board of Elections or by mail. To vote in person they should go to the office of the Board between April 7 and 4:00 p. m. of May 2.

If the voter wishes to vote by mail he should write to the county Board of Elections for a form on which to apply for an Absent Voter's Ballot. He must fill out the application, sign it in the presence of a notary public or other person authorized to administer an oath and return it to the Board of Elections before 4:00 p. m. of May 3.

When the Board of Elections receives the application they shall determine whether the applicant is qualified to vote and if he is, they will send the Voter's Ballot along with the identification envelopes and return envelopes.

When the voter receives the ballots he should mark them without permitting anyone to see the marking, fold them, place them in the identification envelope and seal the envelope. The voter should then take the envelope to a notary public, or other person authorized to administer an oath, and fill in the information required on the outside of the envelope and sign it in the presence of such person.

This identification envelope is then placed in a return envelope and mailed or delivered in person by the voter in time to reach the Board of Elections by 12:00 Noon on Friday, May 3. No ballot may be counted which is received later than this date.

Being Princess Is Hard Job For Grace Kelly

Helping Rule Monaco Keeps Ex-Actress Busy And She Likes It Too

By DOROTHY ROE
Associated Press Women's Editor
MONTE CARLO, Monaco (AP)—Being a princess is almost as hard a job as being a movie star, says Princess Grace of Monaco who used to be Grace Kelly of Philadelphia and Hollywood.

Princess Grace, who is observing her first wedding anniversary next week, takes her new job seriously, just as she did her film career, in which she won an Oscar, the film colony's highest accolade.

And she is working just as hard at her role as the wife of this tiny country's ruling prince—with every indication that the fairy tale ending is being written: They lived happily ever after.

"There's a lot to do," the Princess told visiting correspondents. "I just got through the last of the wedding 'thank you' notes when I had to start on the baby's mail. Then there's the load of other mail, about 200 letters a day and all the official receptions and teas. I don't seem to have much spare time."

A visit to the palace at Monte Carlo is like stepping into the middle of a fairy tale. Set on a high cliff overlooking the blue Mediterranean and the curving coast of the French Riviera, its battlements glitter in the sunshine. The palace guards are resplendent in bright blue uniforms with red epaulettes, brass buttons and yards of gold braid. Their white gloves immaculate, they stand at attention as the visitor crosses the cobble courtyard, enters the long corridor and mounts the red carpeted stairs.

Monacans say they never have encountered such royal energy as is exemplified by Princess Grace. She is up early every morning, breakfasts with the Prince at 9 then spends an hour in the nursery with little Princess Caroline, who may some day be ruler of Monaco unless she gets a little brother. The dimpled little Princess is already being prepared for future regal duties.

Her Swiss nurse, Margaret Stahl, speaks French and German and she will learn English from her mother and father.

After her play period with the baby, Princess Grace goes to her office in the palace where she keeps two secretaries busy. Office duties take up the time until lunch.

Almost every day there is some kind of reception or tea in honor of visiting dignitaries. Usually there are guests for dinner and twice a week friends are invited in for American movies shown in the palace's private theater, a wedding gift from Princess Grace's father.

Several times a week the Princess visits the two orphan homes, the hospital and old people's home in the little principality to see for herself that nothing is wanting.

Hudson River Home Base For Reserve Maritime Fleet

NEW YORK—Most visitors plan to spend at least one day driving along Manhattan's West Side highway and the East River drive, marvelling at the mighty ocean liners and busy freighters docked alongside.

Some even steal an extra hour to view the Erie basin and "The Narrows" in Brooklyn, from the vantage point of the belt parkway. However, those who love ships usually are unaware of a thrill available to the eye and camera only an hour away by a scenic highway.

Some 40 miles up the Hudson river from where the United States, Queen Mary and Queen Elizabeth, and a thousand other ocean giants dock is one of the eight national reserve fleets maintained by the United States Maritime administration.

The Hudson river anchorage of nearly 200 ships is neither the largest nor the smallest—but certainly it is typical. Other vessels are stored at Olympia, Wash.; Beaumont, Tex.; Astoria, Oreg.; Suisun Bay, Calif.; Mobile, Ala.; Wilmington, N. C., and in Virginia's James river.

TO SEE the ships of the Hudson river "mothballed fleet," the motorist leaves Manhattan by either the Lincoln tunnel or the George Washington bridge—the bridge is more convenient—and turns north on U. S. Highway 9-W in New Jersey.

It's a beautiful trip along the Hudson river and, after crossing the New York state line, one comes upon the tiny community of Stony Point.

By the roadside of 9-W one may stand on the shores of the river almost within touching distance of many of the ships. Not Navy vessels are these, but, rather, the type cargo ship which served as a lifeline during World War II.

Most of the ships are EC-2 Liberty ships, 455 feet long, but

She also heads the Red Cross in Monaco and busies herself with many charitable enterprises.

"She sticks her nose in everything," says her press attache, "and the people love it. She's doing a lot of good here, setting a new fashion in royalty."

On the morning of my visit, Princess Grace was having a private showing of the current fashion collection of Lanvin-Castillo, complete with models sent down from Paris for her convenience. Christian Dior also sends his models down each season so the Princess can select her wardrobe in privacy and at leisure.

Since she must dress for dinner every night she needs a lot of evening gowns. During the daytime, however, Princess Grace wears the same kind of casual clothes she always has preferred—simple wool dresses or sweaters and skirts.

The Prince and Princess plan a visit to Rome the end of April and have taken a chalet in Switzerland for July and August. Late in the year they may take Princess Caroline for a visit to her American grandparents in Philadelphia.

there are numerous other ships, too. There are new Mariner class cargo vessels, such as those used during the Korean campaign, though many recently have been sold or leased to private shipping interests.

There are C-1s, C-1-MAVs, and C-4s. Among the "tiers" in which ships are aligned carefully by the dozens also are long, sleek passenger giants which, even in retirement against national emergency still are huge by seagoing standards.

There is the former luxury liner Washington, built in 1933 for United States Lines. She was converted into a troop ship during World War II and re-named the Mount Vernon.

Post-war she was returned to private enterprise for the trans-Atlantic passenger run as the Washington—and she still remains the third biggest passenger vessel ever built in this country.

Only the United States and the America are larger. She is 688 feet long and grosses 23,626 tons.

THE PRESIDENT Tyler, once in the round-the-world service of the old Dollar Line, rests nearby. The white American Mariner, with the Maritime administration insignia on her smokestack, may be seen, too.

However, perhaps the most historic ship of any in the Hudson river anchorage bears the name Edmund B. Alexander. "Born" 50 years ago at Belfast, Ireland, this huge ship was launched for the Hamburg-America Lines as the Amerika.

She was a floating German palace until 1917, when she was interned in Boston at the same time as the Kronprinz Cecile and the Kaiser Wilhelm II.

The Amerika transported many thousands of Allied troops to the European war zone through perilous, submarine-infested Atlantic waters.

The Maritime administration notes that the Amerika has transported more American troops to fields of battle than any other ship in history.

Like the Washington, the Amerika is in storage because it is not financially feasible to operate her as a commercial ocean liner. However, her public rooms retain their elegance, with mahogany panelling and parqued floors still beautifully preserved despite a half-century of almost continuous usage.

THE BRASS and teak of her bridge have been cared for lovingly by the Maritime administration employees guarding and supervising the entire fleet.

Outwardly, the ships of the Hudson river anchorage appear to be weatherbeaten. However, what looks like rust actually is a red oxide solution—a rust-preventative sprayed on regularly to protect the superstructures from the elements. Engine-rooms are coated with layers of grease.

All of the 200 ships in the fleet can be placed back in active service in a matter of weeks. They are inspected individually regularly by Maritime administration employees who headquarter aboard the Liberty ship E. C. Hall.

He emphasized that the bullets would be completed with powder and jackets outside the prison.

BLOCK ISLAND, R. I. (AP)—Block Island's school was in session Sunday for the seventh consecutive day.

Some of the older islanders say they cannot remember when the school was in operation on both weekend days.

IT'S the LAW

Following is another in a series of articles presented as a public service by the Pickaway County Bar Association. These articles deal only with hypothetical cases and are not intended to solve individual problems that need specific advice. Names, when used, are always fictitious.

Jury Service Reveals Citizenship In Action

A jury in action is a universal favorite of the movie script writers. They describe it in the typical language of their trade:

Place: Court House, Ohio town.

Time: Late afternoon.

Scene: Both sides have just completed their final arguments to the jury in an emotion-packed first degree murder trial. The judge has charged the jury concerning the law. It is now the duty of the jury to decide the facts and render a verdict.

A stranger, observing this drama might well speculate on at least three questions: (1) Who are these persons called jurors? (2) How did they get there? (3) Is this truly a good system? That stranger might also be surprised to know that the answers to his questions are tightly woven into the fabric of the American legal system.

In the first place, jurors are not specialists. They are citizens in action. They represent a cross section of people.

IN A TYPICAL jury box, a salesman might be sitting next to a retired office manager, an engineer beside a young matron, a working wife behind a mature executive's widow with a fashionable address. Individually they are not likely to be especially impressive. But, collectively, they combine an unexpected variety of experience and knowledge. Their great strength is in that grossly undervalued quality—common sense.

Jurors are selected under a definite system provided by law. Under the Revised Code of Ohio, a jury is chosen from a list of voters at the last general election, prepared and supplied to the court by the County Board of Elections. The names are then selected and placed in the jury wheel under a key number system. (For example, every 25th name may be picked.)

If a person's name is then drawn from the wheel, later, a summons for jury service may be forthcoming. That, of course, means an individual must appear at a designated court room on a given day for jury service. Despite the definiteness of the summons, a person still may be excused and probably will be—if he has a valid reason for not being available for service.

The jury system is guaranteed by both the United States and the Ohio Constitution. Thus, its maintenance or rejection does not depend upon the views of any government officials or upon public opinion.

It has some critics as well as many supporters. Among the former are some members of the legal profession. However, the prevailing viewpoint is still favorable as it was when Alexander Hamilton, one of our constitutional forefathers, said:

"FOR MY PART, the more the operation of the institution has fallen under my observation, the more reason I have discovered for holding it in high estimation; and, it would be altogether superfluous to examine to what extent it deserves to be esteemed useful or essential to a representative republic, or how much more merit it may be entitled to, as a defense against the oppressions of an hereditary monarch, than as a barrier to the tyranny of popular magistrates in a popular government."

Thus, jurors when they decide a case are doing more than appearing in a dramatic setting, they are participating in a practical demonstration of citizenship in action.

Your Election Laws...

By Ted W. Brown
Secretary of State of Ohio

Ohio is one of the thirty-seven states which permits civilian absent voting. Ohio permits voters who will be unavoidably absent from their counties and more than ten miles from their voting precincts on May 7, Primary Election Day, to vote an Absent Voter's Ballot. This may be done either in person at the office of the county Board of Elections or by mail. To vote in person they should go to the office of the Board between April 7 and 4:00 p. m. of May 2.

If the voter wishes to vote by mail he should write to the county Board of Elections for a form on which to apply for an Absent Voter's Ballot. He must fill out the application, sign it in the presence of a notary public or other person authorized to administer an oath and return it to the Board of Elections before 4:00 p. m. of May 3.

When the Board of Elections receives the application they shall determine whether the applicant is qualified to vote and if he is, they will send the Voter's Ballot along with the identification envelopes and return envelopes.

When the voter receives the ballots he should mark them without permitting anyone to see the marking, fold them, place them in the identification envelope and seal the envelope. The voter should then take the envelope to a notary public, or other person authorized to administer oath, and fill in the information required on the outside of the envelope and sign it in the presence of such person.

This identification envelope is then placed in a return envelope and mailed or delivered in person by the voter in time to reach the Board of Elections by 12:00 Noon on Friday, May 3. No ballot may be counted which is received later than this date.

Being Princess Is Hard Job For Grace Kelly

Helping Rule Monaco Keeps Ex-Actress Busy And She Likes It Too

By DOROTHY ROE
Associated Press Women's Editor

MONTE CARLO, Monaco (AP)—Being a princess is almost as hard a job as being a movie star, says Princess Grace of Monaco who is to be Grace Kelly of Philadelphia and Hollywood.

Princess Grace, who is observing her first wedding anniversary next week, takes her new job seriously, just as she did her film career, in which she won an Oscar, the film colony's highest accolade.

And she is working just as hard at her role as the wife of this tiny country's ruling prince—with every indication that the fairy tale ending is being written: They lived happily ever after.

"There's a lot to do," the Princess told visiting correspondents. "I just got through the last of the wedding 'thank you' notes when I had to start on the baby's mail. Then there's the load of other mail, about 200 letters a day and all the official receptions and teas. I don't seem to have much spare time."

A visit to the palace at Monte Carlo is like stepping into the middle of a fairy tale. Set on a high cliff overlooking the blue Mediterranean and the curving coasts of the French Riviera, its battlements glitter in the sunshine. The palace guards are resplendent in bright blue uniforms with red epaulets, brass buttons and yards of gold braid. Their white gloves immaculate, they stand at attention as the visitor crosses the cobbled courtyard, enters the long corridor and mounts the red carpeted stairs.

Monacans say they never have encountered such royal energy as is exemplified by Princess Grace. She is up early every morning, breakfasts with the Prince at 9 then spends an hour in the nursery with little Princess Caroline, who may some day be ruler of Monaco unless she gets a little brother. The dimpled little Princess is already being prepared for future regal duties.

Her Swiss nurse, Margaret Stahl, speaks French and German and she will learn English from her mother and father.

After her play period with the baby, Princess Grace goes to her office in the palace where she keeps two secretaries busy. Office duties take up the time until lunch.

Almost every day there is some kind of reception or tea in honor of visiting dignitaries. Usually there are guests for dinner and twice a week friends are invited in for American movies shown in the palace's private theater, a wedding gift from Princess Grace's father.

Several times a week the Princess visits the two orphan homes, the hospital and old people's home in the little principality to see for herself that nothing is wanting.

Hudson River Home Base For Reserve Maritime Fleet

NEW YORK—Most visitors plan to spend at least one day driving along Manhattan's West Side highway and the East River drive, marvelling at the mighty ocean liners and busy freighters docked alongside.

Some even steal an extra hour to view the Erie basin and "The Narrows" in Brooklyn, from the vantage point of the belt parkway. However, those who love ships usually are unaware of a thrill available to the eye and camera only an hour away by a scenic highway.

Some 40 miles up the Hudson river from where the United States, Queen Mary and Queen Elizabeth, and a thousand other ocean giants dock is one of the eight national reserve fleets maintained by the United States Maritime administration.

The Hudson river anchorage of nearly 200 ships is neither the largest nor the smallest—but certainly it is typical. Other vessels are stored at Olympia, Wash.; Beaumont, Tex.; Astoria, Ore.; Suisun Bay, Calif.; Mobile, Ala.; Wilmington, N. C., and in Virginia's James river.

TO SEE the ships of the Hudson river "mothballed fleet," the motorist leaves Manhattan by either the Lincoln tunnel or the George Washington bridge—the bridge is more convenient—and turns north on U. S. Highway 9-W in New Jersey.

It's a beautiful trip along the Hudson river and, after crossing the New York state line, one comes upon the tiny community of Stony Point.

By the roadside of 9-W one may stand on the shores of the river almost within touching distance of many of the ships. Not Navy vessels are these, but, rather, the type cargo ship which served as a lifeline during World War II. Most of the ships are EC-2 Liberty ships, 455 feet long, but

She also heads the Red Cross in Monaco and busies herself with many charitable enterprises.

"She sticks her nose in everything," says her press attache, "and the people love it. She's doing a lot of good here, setting a new fashion in royalty."

On the morning of my visit, Princess Grace was having a private showing of the current fashion collection of Lanvin-Castillo, complete with models sent down from Paris for her convenience. Christian Dior also sends his models down each season so the Princess can select her wardrobe in privacy and at leisure.

Since she must dress for dinner every night she needs a lot of evening gowns. During the daytime, however, Princess Grace wears the same kind of casual clothes she always has preferred—simple wool dresses or sweaters and skirts.

The Prince and Princess plan a visit to Rome the end of April and have taken a chalet in Switzerland for July and August. Late in the year they may take Princess Caroline for a visit to her American grandparents in Philadelphia.

there are numerous other ships, too. There are new Mariner class cargo vessels, such as those used during the Korean campaign, though many recently have been sold or leased to private shipping interests.

There are C-1s, C-1-MAVs, and C-4s. Among the "tugs" in which ships are aligned carefully by the dozens also are long, sleek passenger giants which, even in retirement against national emergency still are huge by seagoing standards.

There is the former luxury liner Washington, built in 1933 for United States Lines. She was converted into a troop ship during World War II and re-named the Mount Vernon.

Post-war she was returned to private enterprise for the trans-Atlantic passenger run as the Washington—and she still remains the third biggest passenger vessel ever built in this country.

Only the United States and the America are larger. She is 688 feet long and grosses 23,626 tons.

THE PRESIDENT Tyler, once in the round-the-world service of the old Dollar Line, rests nearby. The white American Mariner, with the Maritime administration insignia on her smokestack, may be seen, too.

However, perhaps the most historic ship of any in the Hudson river anchorage bears the name Edmund B. Alexander. "Born" 50 years ago at Belfast, Ireland, this huge ship was launched for the Hamburg-America Lines as the Amerika.

She was a floating German palace until 1917, when she was interned in Boston at the same time as the Kronprinz Cecilie and the Kaiser Wilhelm II.

The Amerika transported many thousands of Allied troops to the European war zone through perilous, submarine-infested Atlantic waters.

The Maritime administration notes that the Amerika has transported more American troops to fields of battle than any other ship in history.

Like the Washington, the Amerika is in storage because it is not financially feasible to operate her as a commercial ocean liner. However, her public rooms retain their elegance, with mahogany panelling and parqued floors still

Ohio Road Bonds Being Delivered

COLUMBUS (AP)—Secretary of State Ted W. Brown left Sunday night for New York, where he will sign $32 million worth of major thoroughfare construction bonds.

Brown will sign the bonds as secretary of the Board of Sinking Fund Commissioners. After the bonds are signed, they will be delivered to Eastman Dillon and Union Securities and Co. of New York, successful bidders at the recent sale. This is the fifth of series of bond sales approved by Ohio voters, which will total $500 million when all are issued.

Prisoners Making Slugs For Police

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Inmates at Honesburg Prison are manufacturing slugs for policemen's bullets.

Edward J. Hendrick, superintendent of Philadelphia prisons, says the foundry will keep prisoners busy and at the same time save the city "considerable money each year."

He emphasized that the bullets would be completed with powder and jackets outside the prison.

Those still to be admitted will include hardship cases, members of divided families, and such special interest cases as selected scientists and engineers.

School Is Held During Weekend

BLOCK ISLAND, R. I. (AP)—Block Island's school was in session Sunday for the seventh consecutive day.

Some of the older islanders say they cannot remember when the school was in operation on both weekend days.

Saturday was a makeup day for one of the days lost last February because of a chicken pox epidemic. On Sunday two students were called in after morning worship for make up work in chemistry.
